Vaccine Release Stopped

Federal Issuance Of Polio Shots Is Halted Temporarily For Scientist Exam

WASHINGTON (AP)—Surgeon Gen. Leonard Scheele said today federal polio vaccine has been halted pending complete study of the situation by top medical scientists.

Scheele told the House Banking Committee that production of the vaccine is continuing but federal review and approval of additional supplies has been held off now "for several days."

Scheele, head of the U. S. Public Health Service, said the program of releasing vaccine thus has been "brought to a standstill" for the time being.

Earlier, he had said, he feels confident, however, that a conference of scientists now under way here will conclude that the vaccine is excellent and that nationwide inoculation should be continued.

Scheele said there has been no effort to prevent vaccinations from supplies already released, or to slow down production. The only slow-down, he emphasized, had been in federal review and approval of the vaccine before it is released.

Manufacturers send the government a sample from each batch of vaccine they prepare. The batch is not released until the government gives approval.

The surgeon general strongly backed the Eisenhower administration's stand that voluntary methods will be adequate to assure that the vaccine is distributed first to children in the age groups most susceptible to polio.

Committee Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) had said in advance of the hearings that he feels "we need some legislation to make sure the vaccine goes to the children first without regard to ability to pay for it."

Scheele said he has great confidence the vaccine will help defeat polio despite the fact that 44 vaccinated children now have been stricken with the disease.

Two Men Held For Robbery Of Bank of Buckner

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Two men held in connection with the $12,000 robbery of the First State Bank of Buckner, Mo., will be arraigned today before the U. S. commissioner.

William G. Simon, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, identified the men as John William Farr, 37, Kansas City, and Charles Posey, 28, St. Louis. He said they will be charged with violation of the federal bank robbery statute.

Simon said the two were arrested several hours after the robbery yesterday at Farr's apartment. They offered no resistance, although Farr was armed with a revolver.

The FBI said $6,000 taken in the holdup was discovered tied to the trouser legs of a pair of coveralls which was similar to those worn by one of the bank robbers. The clothing was found in a suitcase in Farr's apartment.

Farr, who also is known as Jack William Price, is a native of Muskogee, Okla. Posey is married and the father of four children.

Two armed, unmasked bandits held up the bank shortly before noon yesterday. After ordering bank employees up to the floor, the men scooped up approximately $12,000 in currency and fled in a car.

Ten-Year Hamburger

ENID, Okla. (AP)—Floyd Stone, 22, an ex-convict, drew a 10-year sentence for trying to rob a man of a hamburger sandwich. He threatened Jim Zimmerman with a knife, but Zimmerman collared him and called police.

A Blue Ceiling

Plenty of blue sky up there for all those Stratoljets that have been flying around lately, taking advantage of this excellent weather for training trips.

Seventh Graders Enjoy Play Day At Liberty Park

Every seventh grade class in the Sedalia public school system went out to Liberty Park all day Friday for Play Day — a day of recreation and supervised games without separating the children by schools.

The classes began moving out to the park at 8:30 a. m. and Play Day began at 9 a. m. and lasted from 11 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. and then Play Day continued until 2:30 p. m. when the classes returned to their schools for dismissal.

The pupils were accompanied by their teachers and principals as well as their homeroom mothers, and six coaches — Kenneth Cordry, Russell Gilmore, Gerald Cain, Don Reynolds, George Foster and John Thomas — supervised the games. There was softball, skating, relays, square dancing and other recreational activities.

The purpose of the day was to make the pupils forget for a day their identity with any one school and enjoy themselves as a part of the entire school system with out regard to inter-school competition.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Capt. Mitchell S. Dziekan, 30, Sioux City, Ia., was reported in serious condition in a hospital here following the crash of his F3 jet trainer near the Grandview air force base yesterday.

He suffered a severe head injury and severe burns when his plane crashed and caught fire shortly after taking off. He was rescued by crash truck crewmen from the base.

Capt. Dziekan, assigned to the 519th fighter interceptor squadron at Sioux City air force base, was on a routine mission.

The Smorgasbord Thursday was to honor not only Mr. Highleyman but also Mrs. Highleyman.

To Study Lincoln's Future

Special Commission Appointed to Work Out Its Disposition As An Institution

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The House passed today a resolution setting up a special commission to study the future of Lincoln University, Negro school in Jefferson City.

The original resolution was the result of a U. S. Supreme Court order outlawing segregation in public schools. But it has been broadened to include a study of all Missouri higher educational institutions.

The commission would make its recommendations to the 1957 General Assembly.

On the study group would be five representatives and five senators, and a 13-member citizens advisory group representing all Missouri state colleges and universities.

The Legislature already has hinted that Lincoln University will be kept in operation.

An $800,000 reappropriation to complete a fine arts and auditorium building under construction at Lincoln University is included in one of the appropriation bills.

Also approved was establishment of a 112-member study committee, six from each house to survey the problems of juvenile delinquency and youthful crime during the next two years.

The House dragged along today for a two hour session and as attendance dropped off, work had to be limited to non-controversial bills.

Soon after the House killed a bill to extend the 40-hour week to all state merit system employees, it had to cut entirely until next Monday. The vote killing the bill was 71-1, eight short of the number needed.

The House granted permission for Rep. John C. Bauman (D) of Johnson County to introduce an emergency bill despite the fact the session is nearing an end.

It would permit the State Park Board to lease about 350 acres of land from Knob Noster State Park to the Sedalia Air Force Base for recreational purposes. Bauman said the Air Force would undertake a $300,000 recreational expansion program in the leased area.

Passed and sent to the governor were measures to:

Let municipalities license and regulate trash dumps and garbage disposal areas. It was aimed at the problem created by rapidly growing urban areas. A companion bill makes it a misdemeanor to dump trash, garbage and things like beer cans along public roads.

Grant 52 permanent auto licenses for antique cars more than 25 years old.

British Ship Released After Being Held Up

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The 3,500-ton British freighter Incharran, seized Wednesday by guerrillas off the Matsu Islands, was released today, official reports said. The local British consul, Alexander Hermann, will protest the seizure to the Formosa provincial government tomorrow.

Highleyman Honorary Life Member—

Mr., Mrs. Sam Highleyman Honored By Local Elks Club

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Highleyman, 1020 State Fair Blvd., were honored at a Smorgasbord held in the basement of the B.P.O. Elks Club, Fourth and Kentucky, Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Highleyman leave Monday for Laguna Beach, Calif., where they will make their home.

Wednesday night the Sedalia Lodge No. 125 B.P.O. Elks honored Mr. Highleyman when it was unanimously voted to present him with a Honorary Life Membership in the B. P. O. Elks. It was the sixth such honor which has been bestowed upon members of the Sedalia Lodge in over 50 years.

He served through all of the chairs of the local Lodge and is Past Exalted Ruler of the Lodge. He later served as District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the South-west District of the Elks during which time he acted as all lodges in the district and visited as a Goodwill Ambassador for the Sedalia group as well as representing the Grand Lodge of the Elks.

Since becoming a member of the local group in 1941 he has been very active in the affairs of the lodge.

The Smorgasbord Thursday was to honor not only Mr. Highleyman but also Mrs. Highleyman.

Surprise Prank Ends After Near Tragedy

ALTON, Ill. (AP)—Two daughters of Mrs. Charles A. Patton wanted to surprise their mother who was busily packing for a family vacation trip.

Three-year-old Bryscilla Faye helped Audrey, 5, close herself inside an empty suitcase yesterday. Audrey planned to jump out and yell "surprise" when her mother opened the suitcase.

But mother started getting dinner instead. Some time later Bryscilla Faye suggested to Mrs. Patton that she open the suitcase and told her why.

Audrey, overcome and near suffocation, revived soon after her parents released her. She was taken to a hospital for treatment and then was returned to her home.

Farm Supports Pass House; Tense Windup

Eisenhower Plan Scrapped by Demo Political Powers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House voted yesterday to restore high rigid farm price supports in a second display of the Democratic leadership's ability to flex its political muscles in defiance of the Eisenhower administration.

As proved to be the case earlier when it voted to cut everybody's taxes by $20, nothing seemed likely to come to this new move—at least this year.

The vote was 206-201 to scrap the flexible system of price supports which Congress approved last year at the urging of the administration. Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) and other Democratic leaders mustered 185 Democrats and 21 Republicans for the bill; voting for the administration were 29 Democrats and 172 Republicans.

At the tense windup, several members switched their votes to provide the winning margin.

Aside from Rayburn's support, there were other parallels to the Feb. 25 vote to cut income taxes. In both cases, there was obvious Senate reluctance to go along. It scuttled the tax cut. And in both cases there was a likelihood of a veto, which probably could not be overridden, by President Eisenhower.

The farm bill will carry over into next year's session of Congress, and the Senate may act on it then. It seemed likely to be pigeonholed for 1955.

Basic farm law sets up a standard, called parity, for measuring farm prices. Parity, which fluctuates with general price levels, is designed to give farmers a fair return for their products in relation to their costs.

The law also describes six crops as basic. They are wheat, corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and peanuts. Under the administration program now in effect, the government is required to support the prices of five basic crops at levels between 82½ and 90 per cent of parity.

Under this year, the range will be 75 to 90 per cent. Under special legislation, tobacco supports are held at 90 per cent.

The House bill would restore the mandatory 90 per cent supports first imposed during World War II for corn, cotton, wheat, peanuts and rice. It also would raise the support floor on milk and dairy products from the present 75 to 80 per cent of parity.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson, in Harriman, N.Y., for a speech, termed the House action "a step backward—a retreat in the direction of emergency wartime supports."

The residue of the money is to be divided equally among 25 employees. Weatherford bequeathed his television set and articles of clothing to his two roommates.

Weatherford had been employed at the hospital about 20 years.

Some Precipitation For Next Five Days

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Temperatures far above normal and little moisture is the forecast for the next five days in Missouri.

The extended forecast calls for temperatures from 8 to 10 above normal in the northeast to 12 to 15 above normal in the southwest through next Wednesday. Precipitation, the Weather Bureau figures will average less than a quarter of an inch.

The forecast for tonight and Saturday calls for scattered local thundershowers in the southeast and extreme south with cooler in the northwest. Saturday's highs are expected to range from the 70s in the north to 90-95 in the south.

Sedalia Man Leaves Money To Hospital

Eugene Weatherford Bequeaths Estate Of About $6,500

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (AP)—Ten organizations, and 27 employees of the Veterans Administration Center at Wadsworth were named today to share in the $6,500 estate of a former night admission clerk at the center.

The bequests were made in a nuncupative, or oral, will of Eugene Weatherford, 56, who died Saturday.

Weatherford, a native of Sedalia, Mo., who had no known relatives, was told recently by doctors he was suffering from cancer of the liver and did not have long to live.

Because VA regulations prevented him from making gifts of money to follow employees, he called in an attorney last Friday to draw his will. He died before the will was drafted and signed.

Tom Boone, an attorney, filed a nuncupative will for admission to probate. The petition estimated the estate at about $6,500 in money and securities.

Ten organizations named to receive bequests of $200 each were the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Eagles, American Red Cross chapter here, the Salvation Army post, the American Cancer Fund, the National Heart Assn., and the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish chaplain station funds at the Wadsworth hospital.

The residue of the money is to be divided equally among 25 employees. Weatherford bequeathed his television set and articles of clothing to his two roommates.

Weatherford had been employed at the hospital about 20 years.

Chiang Discloses Minefield

Nationalists Claim Action Is Defensive To Prevent Possible Invasion By Reds

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek's headquarters announced today that as of today defensive minefields have been laid in the territorial waters of Nationalist China's offshore islands.

Underscoring Nationalist concern, the announcement said the action was taken in view of the declared intention of the Chinese Communists to invade Formosa and their "repeated attacks on the offshore islands."

Communist artillery on Amoy yesterday poured 150 shells into Little Quemooy, only four miles away, and dropped 11 on Quemooy. The day before Nationalist planes encountered four Red MIG-15s north of the Matsus, as other planes attacked and damaged Red gunboats in Amoy Bay.

The announcement termed the minefielding defensive, implying it was intended to obstruct possible invasion from the nearby mainland.

Nationalist sources indicated, however, there was more than one purpose.

One possible effect, they said, might be to choke off shipping to the mainland port of Fochow near the Matsus. They have been concerned about this because they believe the Reds have been shipping jet fuel and other war supplies into Fukien province through Fochow.

They are not worried so much about Amoy, 150 miles to the south. They say their retention of the Quemoys has made Amoy a dead port for some time.

Both foreign and Nationalist quarters believe one result of the minefielding will be to boost insurance rates, which may tend to lessen shipping to that part of Red China.

Official quarters refused to indicate whether mines also had been sown in the territorial waters of the Red mainland.

Foreign Minister George Yeh, in replying to questions in the legislative Yuan, repeated the standard Nationalist opposition to a cease-fire.

He described trusteeship for Formosa as "impossible."

Hausam Co. Under Contract At Springfield

The Hausam Co., wholesale distributors of automotive equipment, garage supplies and replacement parts, 200 West Fourth Street, is under contract for purchase by the Hermann-Brownlow Co., Springfield.

The announcement was made by L. C. White, vice-president and manager of the firm. It was reported that the management of the Sedalia store and the Hausam Co., at Clinton would remain the same.

The Hausam Co. was founded at its present location in 1919 by the late E. F. Hausam. The Clinton store was started in 1932.

The officers of the Springfield firm were close personal friends of Mr. Hausam. The announcement read in part: "It is natural that Mrs. Hausam would choose them to carry on his establishment traditions of service and square dealing."

The Hermann-Brownlow Co., automotive store was established in Springfield in 1900 as dealers of harness and saddlery. About 1929 the firm made the change over to the automotive supply business.

Smith-Cotton Seniors Have Recognitions

Being all set for Kid Day at Smith-Cotton High School proved rather nerve-racking about 10.30 p.m. Thursday night when Bob Streeter, 1222 East Fifth, who had borrowed a car from a friend, Tom Bartram, 400 East 14th, was stopped by the police who had a report the car was stolen.

Bartram had loaned the car to Streeter to be used for Kid Day, gave him the keys and went to work at National Engineering and Manufacturing Co. Tom decided he needed some cigarettes and went to get them from his car and the car was gone.

Tom forgot Streeter was going to pick the car up Thursday night, and rushed back to the telephone and reported his car stolen. The police immediately broadcast a "stolen item" on the vehicle.

No sooner had the message been given the police cars than the car driven by Streeter appeared in front of one of the patrol cars at Broadway and Limitt. The boys were stopped and questioned, and Streeter was all "shaken up." He explained what the arrangement was and the police had the boys drive back to the National Engineering and Manufacturing Co., where Bartram recalled the loan, but thought the boys would get the car Friday morning instead of Thursday night.

Streeter had with him Don Streeter, Don Christian Route 3, Sedalia, and Dear Bennett, 732 East Third. They all knew it was alright to have the car, but when the police stopped them they didn't know what had happened.

"I had been driving carefully, no speeding, not running stop signs or lights, and staying on my side of the road. I couldn't think of a thing when the red light flashed and the siren blew," Streeter said. "But it wasn't funny. The police sure had me if I had stolen it."

Many Renewals For Community Concert Assn.

Returns at Community Concert headquarters in the Missouri Public Service offices are showing a high percentage of renewals for the forthcoming concert season. At a preliminary check-up yesterday, Mrs. Al Miles had brought in the greatest number of renewals and Miss Eva Evans the most new memberships. A chart showing the progress of the drive and the returns made by all solicitors is being kept and is on display at the Community Concert headquarters.

Ralph Carrel, president of the Concert Association, urges that all workers bring in their memberships as early as possible on Saturday, May 7.

The board of directors and the executive board will meet at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Chamber of Commerce offices to select the attractions for next season. A hold agreement has been signed to bring the Tucson Arizona Boys Chorus as one of the attractions for the 1955-56 series. Four concerts are planned.

Local Jaycees Will Attend State Meeting

Six members of the Sedalia Junior Chamber of Commerce will attend the annual state-wide meeting at the Jefferson Hotel, St. Louis, Friday through Sunday, beginning Friday evening.

On hand at the convention will be Jack Delph, president of the Sedalia organization, James Van Wagner, Jr., Jack Faber, Joe Ream, Lee Wilson and Don Richardson.

Charles P. Taft, Cincinnati, O., president of the Committee for a National Trade Policy and a brother of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, will be the luncheon speaker on Saturday. He will discuss President Eisenhower's reciprocal trade policy in a speech entitled "The Missouri Jaycees and World Trade."

The meeting will be given over to business sessions and discussion forums on state organization business, with a state award banquet and ball Saturday evening. State officers will be elected Sunday morning. The meeting marks the 40th anniversary of the Junior Chamber in St. Louis, first such organization in the country. More than 300 delegates are expected to attend.

tures on music appreciation at the Public Library.

Mr. Wuelfing stated he was just an enthusiastic listener and had a deep appreciation for music. "Every week is National Music Week in my home," he said.

We are living in a time saving period, the speaker said, and people should take the time and effort to understand music. It is the symphony of all the arts, he pointed out, architecture, literature, painting, all reflect in music. The type of music you like best doesn't matter. Take any piece of music then sit down and think about it.

Sedalia's he said, are a little afraid of reaching out beyond and accepting music. You may take it apart, he said, but you must become acquainted with it, serious music, romantic music, modern music, which has a place in the revolution of music.

What does music mean to a community? Mr. Wuelfing asked. The United Nations, he said, is in its tenth year and the UNESCO was organized for an exchange of ideas with the breaking of the ice done through music, which is the universal language. The UN is just another community.

We sometimes have to work for music the speaker said, it is a serious art, but a little effort is so rewarding. It is based on the theories of beauty of sound, emotional and intellectual. There is the composer, the reformer and the listener and the listener is as important as the other two because he decides whether the music will live or die. The people have a definite responsibility in trying to understand music and composers.

Mr. Wuelfing urged the people of Sedalia to encourage local talent and particularly the young musicians. This must be done he said, if the community is to have real musical contributions. All citizens of the community, he said, share this responsibility.

Meadow Gold Plays Hamm's This Evening

The Meadow Gold softball team will play the Hamm's team at 7:30 tonight at the Housel park diamond. Batteries for Meadow Gold; Bill Hutchinson and Lopp Barnes.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Lindy Wilson, Mrs. Louis Isgur, Mrs. William C. Clifford, Mrs. Dorothy Kindred, Mrs. Ethel Van Cott, Mrs. Katherine Luebbert and Mrs. Ebba Mattson.

Mrs. J. F. Schumacher, president, conducted the business meeting, and invocation was given by Mrs. Lena Booth. Miss Eugenia Arnold led the singing, with Miss Doris Stott at the piano.

The program chairman for the evening was Mrs. Cecil Peoples and members of her committee were Mrs. Duane Beucke, Miss Mildred Brackman, Mrs. Madeline Burke, Mrs. Leland Coontz, Mrs. Henry H. Cooper, Mrs. Donald Donath, Mrs. Gertrude Fingland, Mrs. Peggy Fusco, Mrs. L. S. Layne, Miss Rose Leibbrand, Mrs. John Loague, Mrs. Marian McCarty, Mrs. Mabel Menefee, Miss Donnis Michael, Mrs. Nellie Monagan Bradley, Mrs. Virginia Oswald, Mrs. Oma Rice, Mrs. Myrtle Scotten, Miss Letha Shaw, Mrs. Marie Spendiff, Mrs. Ola Wright and Mrs. E. F. Yancey.

The tables were decorated with spring flowers and cutout silhouettes of various figures in the field of music. Gold music staffs on the speaker's table were a background also for the silhouettes. The programs also carried out the music idea.

IT'S ALL BUICK

for the price of a smaller car!

YOU certainly can throw out your chest and call this Buick yours.

Because—as comparison shows—the dollar difference between this brawny beauty and the well-known smaller cars is virtually erased.

So if you've been holding back, thinking a Buick was out of reach—let yourself go. You can afford a Buick if you can afford any new car—and the price tag we'll show you proves it.

Buick Sales Soaring To New Highs

That's a major reason for the phenomenal success of Buick today. So much so, that production and sales are hitting new peaks to move Buick more firmly into the tight circle of America's best sellers.

And a companion reason for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of cars to give you a choice in any price class—the bedrock-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-roomy SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But pure and simple, it's all the car you get for your money that's winning so many new owners to Buick.

It's the extra pride you feel, the extra room you enjoy, the extra comfort you get, the extra safety you sense—from Buick styling, Buick size, Buick ride-engineering, Buick solidity of structure.

It's the extra lift and snap and ginger you get from Buick high-compression V8 power—and the fun and thrill of bossing such eager might.

As we said—if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick—even with the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflo™ at modest extra cost.

So why settle for anything less than a Buick? Drop in on us, take the wheel, press that pedal, and see for yourself what a whale of an automobile—and a whale of a buy—today's Buick really is.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series

(Come in and check it!)

DID YOU KNOW—

- that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below any other car of 188 horsepower and 122 inch wheelbase?
- that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below some models of the three well-known smaller cars?
- that the Buick SPECIAL includes as standard equipment at no extra cost a long list of items usually charged for as "extras" by other cars—items such as direction signals, automatic lighting of glove compartment, variable speed windshield wipers with vacuum booster, and so on?
- that the Buick SPECIAL gives you more pounds of automobile than any other car at its low price?

Eula Weekley, Karl Bergman Are Married

Miss Eula Ann Weekley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Weekley, Boonville, and Clarence E. Bergman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bergman, Pilot Grove, were united in marriage Friday afternoon, April 22 at 5 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Glenn A. Irons, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white lace and carried an orchid mounted on a white prayer book. Miss Norma Weekley, sister of the bride and Harold Ries, Pilot Grove, were attendants for the couple. Miss Weekley wore a pink street length dress and a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Carol Bretthorst, New Franklin, was the candle lighter. Mrs. Weekley chose a dress of white lace lined with blue for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Bergman wore a navy blue dress and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the home which was decorated with floral arrangements of white and pink snapdragons, gladioli and daisies.

Mrs. D. D. Kennedy, Boonville, was in charge of the guest book. Assisting were Mrs. Thomas Miller and Mrs. Ransome Scott, Boonville.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a blue suit with white accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergman will be at home on their farm six miles south of Pilot Grove.

The bride is a graduate of the Boonville High School. Mr. Bergman is a graduate of the Pilot Grove High School and served in the Army during the Korean War.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bergman, Mrs. Katie Bergman, Miss Kathryn Cole, Mrs. Rhinehart Schupp, and Hillard Buncupp, Pilot Grove; Leon Kahle, Buncupp, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Day, Warrensburg, Carl J. Bergman and children, Lexington; Mrs. Lawrence Leimkuhler and Jo Ann, Slater; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Weekley, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Weekley, and Douglas, Lamine.

Windsor Methodist Has Mom, Daughter Banquet In Hall

The annual Mother - Daughter Banquet of the Windsor Methodist Church was held in Wesley Hall Thursday evening, May 3, with 95 in attendance.

The tables were beautifully decorated with cut flowers, place mats and nut cups in the form of May baskets.

Mrs. E. F. Dillon gave the invocation. After the supper Mrs. Frederick Winzenried acted as mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Mattie Wilkerson was the oldest mother and Mrs. Kenneth Eldred was the youngest mother present. Mrs. Wilkerson was the oldest grandmother and Mrs. Winzenried the youngest grandmother present. Each one was presented a carnation corsage.

Paula Harris led the group in singing "Mother Machree," "Open Up Your Heart" and "Faith of Our Mothers."

Mrs. W. C. Boney presented Mrs. John H. Carter with a life membership pin in the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Winzenried introduced Mrs. L. W. Lingle, who gave a very interesting travelogue on her visit to the Holy Land.

A switch-board operator in Headquarters Battery of the 30th Field Artillery Battalion, Roberts received instruction in leadership of units, map reading and other military subjects.

A graduate of Hubbard High School, he entered the Army in August 1953 and completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan.

Queen Sends Commons Home to Campaign

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II sent Parliament home today to campaign for the May 26 general elections. In a farewell speech she said Britain hopes to "enter into fruitful negotiations" with the Soviet Union now that West Germany is once again a free and sovereign nation.

Britain now will be without a legislature until June 7, when the new House of Commons will sit for the first time.

Prime Minister Eden and his cabinet will continue to run their various departments. They do not resign until after the election—either for Eden to form a new cabinet if the Conservatives win, or for the Laborites to take over the government if they are victorious.

About Town

Mrs. E. S. Morris Jr., and daughter, Carol Ann of Memphis, Tenn., are spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Franke, 1817 South Stewart.

Mrs. William C. Clifford, San Diego, Calif., formerly of Sedalia, is here for a visit with friends. She is the house guest of Mrs. Frieda Nelson, 322 North Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Groves of Los Angeles, Calif., have returned after a short visit with Mrs. Groves' sister, Mrs. H. H. Deal and Mr. Deal.

Three Guests Attend Stokley Extension; Accept Club Motto

Mrs. Anna George, Mrs. R. B. Burke and Mrs. Darrell Calhoun were visitors who attended the Stokley Extension Club at the home of Mrs. Clay Curtis on May 3.

A contributed dinner was served to 12 members and the guests, who also included two men and a child.

The president, Mrs. Curtis, opened the meeting in the afternoon by reading a poem, "My Creed" and after which she led in prayer.

Several mottoes were suggested for the club and the one accepted was presented by Mrs. Roy McCorkle, "The Higher We Rise, the Broader the View."

Mrs. Guy Balleu was asked to give a book review at a later date, and she selected the book, "The Master Calith for Thee."

Mrs. E. F. Rissler and Mrs. W. T. Summerskill gave a report on the frozen food meeting they attended. They told of the different kinds of fruits and vegetables that could be frozen, the different types of containers to use and the methods of preparing the articles. This report brought on a discussion by members who had ways of using their home freezers.

Miss Ada French and Mrs. Clarence Clark gave a report on the Council meeting they attended. The use of milk in the diet was discussed and everyone was urged to use more milk.

The colored pictures of the Campbell-Harrison House in Columbia for young girls was shown by Estil Hudson and explained by Miss Opal O'Brian.

Mr. Hudson also showed some pictures of better ways to improve farms and farm buildings and this picture was explained by Jim Perry.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Leland Wooden on June 7.

Delta Phi's Meeting With Mrs. Handley

Delta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mrs. Fred Handley, 1512 West Fourth, on Wednesday, with 11 members present, for the installation of officers.

Miss Opal O'Brian, Pettis County home agent, was the guest speaker and presented two lantern slides.

The outgoing president, Mrs. Frank Deady, installed as officers: president, Mrs. Rene Crippen; vice-president, Mrs. Carl Bellamy; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Sellars; recording and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas Consoner; and extension officer and civil defense chairman, Mrs. Bob McCurdy.

Two pictures were presented to Mrs. Deady as outgoing president.

Kansas Citians Are Married At Knob Noster

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bayer and Mr. Bobby Wohlgenuth, Kansas City, were married at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 30, at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. Raymond Rumbo, pastor of the Methodist Church in Knob Noster, who read the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Rumbo and the Rev. Donald Smith witnessed the ceremony. The couple left for a wedding trip through the Ozarks. They will reside in Kansas City.

Junior-Senior Banquet Held At Green Ridge

The Junior-Senior banquet of the Green Ridge High School was held on Tuesday night, May 3, in the auditorium of the school.

The setting for the banquet was a simulated rock fenced garden. The two entrances of the garden were arcs intertwined with greenery and red roses. Greenery placed at appropriate places in the garden and entwined with red roses gave an effective and an attractive setting to the garden.

An old-fashioned well and love seat under a canopy of blue, studded with stars and a silvery half moon formed an attractive center of interest.

The white-covered tables held blue and white candles in crystal holders, decorated with silver stars and red and yellow roses. The mint cups were decorated with silver half moons against a background of blue. The centerpiece for the speaker's table was an arrangement of red roses.

During the banquet the following program was presented, the theme of which was "Remembrances in Roses": "The Faithful Gardener" by Barbara Needy; "To the Great Gardener," Jack Chambers; "Mighty Like a Rose," Patty Robertson, Ruth Lemler, Jackie Kendrick, Sue Harbit, Shelley Sue Morrow and Carol DeCuster with Rosalie Ruffin as accompanist; "Moonlight and Roses to You," Gene Alderman; "Moon Beams for Thoughts," Morris Hinken; "Enchanting Evening," Supt. Wayne Huddleston; "Roses for a Crown," Leroy Ryan, of the board of directors.

Green Ridge Rebekahs Have Mother's Day Observance

Green Ridge Rebekah Lodge No. 830 met in regular session on Monday night, May 2, at the hall with the Noble Grand, Miss Gladys Fletcher, presiding.

The following members of the LaMonte Rebekah Lodge were introduced and welcomed: Mrs. Rose Hulett, Mrs. Bernice Wing, Mrs. Grace DeFrain, Mrs. Amity DeHaven, Mrs. Hazel Nolen, Mrs. Verna Horne, Mrs. Mary Nickle and Mrs. Stella Lindaman. Each member and guest was given a flower of white or lavender to wear in memory of mother.

Following the opening ceremony, Mrs. Scenea Paige read the scripture lesson. During the business meeting the bake sale was discussed and the following committee appointed to be in charge of the food: Mrs. J. M. Palmer, Mrs. Clyde Rehmer, Mrs. Albert Tucker and Mrs. Henry White. The bake sale will be held on the Saturday morning before Mother's Day, at the H. H. Ream garage window.

Unusual Roll Call Has Women Giving Ages And Membership Term

This tops all subjects yet selected for roll call for a women's organization. The secret of every woman, she hopes—her age. And yet that was how roll call was expected to be answered at the Bothwell Homemakers Club May meeting. "Answer roll call by giving your age and the number of years you have belonged to the Bothwell Homemakers Club," the president told the members who looked at each other a little bewildered. But at least that stopped the guessing in one club.

Several of the members answered the second half of the question by saying they had belonged to the club since it started.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Henderson, Jr., with 18 members present and two visitors, Mrs. Albert Anderson and Mrs. Dan Smith.

Mrs. Myron Simm gave a talk on "Preparation of Frozen Foods."

The regular annual flower sale was held at this meeting.

The next meeting will be held on June 15 at the home of Mrs. George Brown at which time talks on "Home Management" will be made by Mrs. Roy Ream and Mrs. George Brown.

The word, "Mother," in gold letters on a green background was the decoration that formed the background at the Noble Grand's station.

The hostesses, Mrs. Lloyd Brown and Mrs. Alva Lett served refreshments to 38 members and guests. Small may baskets were favors.

A program in commemoration of mother was presented following the business meeting. Miss Gladys Fletcher read an article of the history of the Commemoration of Mother's Day. The following mothers were honored and presented small potted begonia plants: Mrs. Harold Lee Baslee as the youngest mother present; Mrs. Mary Nickle of LaMonte as the oldest mother present; Mrs. Guy Rideour, mother of the largest family; Mrs. Rose Hulett of LaMonte, the youngest grandmother present; Mrs. Stella Lindaman of LaMonte, the oldest grandmother present. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Egbert sang as a duet "My Mother's Prayers Have Followed Me." Mrs. Loy Smith gave a musical reading, "When Mother Sang to Me."

Arrangements of lavender and white flowers were placed on the desk and piano and a large basket of flowers was on the floor in front of the Noble Grand's station.

Ten Ways To Be Unhappy...

Why is it so many people get up in the morning with a snarling disposition? All this stuff about bouncing out of bed as the gentle breeze wafts the sound of the early birds' songs through the bedroom window is poetic but not factual.

Life ought to be that way. However, too many indulge an exterior expression of disagreeableness with the expectation it will stimulate inward unhappiness. Actually people revel in unhappiness. But no one ever advises how to live unhappily; that is until Dr. C. H. Baylor, medical director of the Texaco Co., in a recent article wrote on "Ten Ways To Be Unhappy," or how you can think yourself sick if that is what you want.

This negative advice is currently going the rounds of editorial offices, and since it landed in this office by way of The Mexico Ledger at the instigation of Mitchell White, the article is herewith submitted to Sedalians with the idea that perhaps even a negative approach to problems may contradictorily stimulate positive conclusions. So, if you want to be unhappy here are ten ways to get that way:

ONE — To forget the many good things in life you have and over emphasize the few things you lack.

In spite of all their blessings people complain about the cost of steaks, vacation trips and other items that are not essential to our well being.

TWO — To think that money is more important than it actually is.

On the other hand, to have everything money can buy is the quickest way to sheer boredom.

THREE — To think you are indispensable.

This is very hard on one's associates and especially one's family. It is also a likely path to a premature grave through overwork.

FOUR — To think you have too much to do.

Any practicing doctor will tell you that he rarely, if ever, sees a patient suffering from overwork. What is commonly called overwork is anxiety, frustration or discontent.

FIVE — To think you are exceptional or entitled to special privilege.

Actually few people are superior, but many are different.

SIX — To forget that a sense of responsibility is essential to a democratic society.

If the U. S. is to remain great every citizen must have a feeling of loyalty and responsibility to his country, his community, his church, his family and his employer.

SEVEN — To think that you can control your automatic nervous system by reason or will.

The individual can no more control these functions at will than he can change the weather. They operate automatically.

EIGHT — To forget others.

For happiness in a community, a family, or an office nothing is more important than consideration for others.

NINE — To cultivate a pessimistic outlook.

Crossing bridges one may never reach is a habit with these people.

TEN — Finally, the last and probably the worst of thinking habits is to feel sorry for yourself.

To thus become an object of pity is fatal to one's self-respect, and it means that you are well on the way to an unhappy life.

Take a little time from the day's struggles and count your blessings. This is a good thinking habit. Cling to it and give up any of the 10 bad ones that you might have acquired.

Herbert Hoover Got Better Attention From the Demos

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Democrat-Capital
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Herbert Hoover fared better with the Democrats!

It's said here that the former President got more action under the President Harry Truman, who named him to what became known as the Hoover Commission to bring efficiency, economy and business-like administration into the complex structure of the federal government.

Since February, the Hoover Commission has been grinding out reports at the rate of one a week. Eight have been published and there are eight more to come.

The idea of such a Commission is loudly praised. So is Ex-President Hoover even by those Republicans who don't go along with some of the findings.

But there is a great silence from the White House, any committee, any member of Congress. Even the Commission itself, which has the power to prepare legislation, has not come up with a bill. There have been no hearings.

While the Hoover Commission under the Eisenhower Administration set-up is not quite the same as the original, the objective is still to solve some of the problems of governmental reorganization.

Under a Democratic president, these are some of the Hoover recommendations which were adopted:

The National Security Council was moved under the Executive Office of the President; the chairman of the Civil Service Commission was made the administrative head of the Commission; the General Services Agency was created and all of federal supply centralized; the foreign service was put directly under the Secretary of State; the Department of Defense was created to supplant the three Secretaries of Army, Navy and Air Force; the Joint Chiefs of Staff was established; the office of Postmaster General was made non-political for the remainder of Truman's term (Jesse Donaldson was a career man); the Maritime Commission and the Bureau of Public Roads was placed in the Commerce Department; and a National Science Foundation was established.

The World Today--

Must Chaos Visit Viet Nam?

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The frantic efforts of the free, South Vietnamese to create their own government may be the last convulsion before chaos. Efforts now to save them from eventual absorption by communism may be too late.

Still, there is a chance the United States and France can agree on a policy which will rescue South Viet Nam in Indochina from the Communists, who last year in battle forced the French to let them have North Viet Nam.

If there is such agreement, and it succeeds, it must come under the head of better late than never. Secretary of State Dulles flies to Paris today for high-level talks with American allies. Officials say he will talk with the French in search of a unified policy toward South Viet Nam.

Ever since the Communist-led civil war against the French began in Indochina nine years ago, the United States and France had time to work out such a unified policy. There still seems to be none.

In recent years, while this country pumped in supplies costing many millions of dollars, the French lost not only the friendship of millions of Vietnamese but eventually lost in their war with the Communists.

Up until a comparatively short time before the French went down to disaster at Dien Bien Phu in 1954 the Truman and Eisenhower administrations continued to talk optimistically about the prospects for French success.

Yet to realistic readers of American newspapers in this country it must have seemed apparent the road was going to lead all downhill unless the French let the Vietnamese have a truly strong and independent government of their own.

This was not done. It still hasn't been done although the Vietnamese, after the French defeat at Dien Bien Phu, got more independence than at any time since the French took Indochina as a colony in the 19th century.

If South Viet Nam finally descends into chaos and communism there will probably be congressional investigations to learn just what American policy makers in the State Department under Presidents Truman and Eisenhower did to try to prevent it.

The colonial-minded French undoubtedly were the stumbling block and seem still to be. But a natural question arises: Why didn't the United States long ago pressure the French into letting the Vietnamese have full independence, their own army and their own government?

The answer might be the policy makers didn't want to press too hard for fear the French would balk and refuse to let West Germany regain her sovereignty and join the North Atlantic Alliance against Russia.

Rearmament of Germany has been one of this government's main goals for years. But yesterday the West Germans, with the approval of the French and others, regained their sovereignty, with the door open to rearmament.

Now that that problem has been settled, perhaps a concentrated effort will be made by both this country and France to help the South Vietnamese not only establish their own government but set up their own army to defend it.

XXIII
ALL was quiet along the Mo-pac's right-of-way at Rocky Cut on the Lamine River, 13 miles beyond the section stop of Sedalia, Mo.

Just past the rickety trestle which bore the tracks across the Lamine, the green, all-clear lamp outside the watchman's shack winked cheerily through the July night. By its thin light the watchman, chewed at his gag, cursed the luck which had stationed him at a lonely waypoint in the Jesse James country. Forty yards farther up the track, in the throat of the cut, eight good men and true dropped the last of the piled crosses athwart the rails, laughed, spat into the trackside shadows, wondered what was holding up old No. 9.

Jesse checked his watch in the day-bright glare of the summer moon. Train Nine was running 27 minutes late. It was no matter. When Jesse bribed a railroad employee, he stayed bribed. On time or otherwise, No. 9 would be there.

"I told you she was due to lay over at Sedalia to pick up our express car. There's two companies shipping tonight, Adams and United. It figures to take them some time to hook up and get their invoices cleared. Our car will be up front, hooked back of the baggage car."

"What if she ain't?" Cole had shadowed up to them.
"If she ain't," grunted Jesse ominously, "there's due to be a new-made widow hanging around them St. Louis yards before the week's out."

PETE CONKLIN grabbed the arms of his chair, bracing himself as No. 9 bit into the trestle curve.
If only Johnny Bushnell would get back in the express car where he belonged, they could get on with their chess game. Bushnell was the express guard.

Dr. Jordan Says-- Shingles Is Usually More Uncomfortable Than Serious

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
So far as I know there have been no astonishing new developments regarding the origin or treatment of that uncomfortable disease known as shingles or herpes zoster. Nevertheless correspondence indicates that this disorder is by no means rare and deserves renewed discussion from time to time.

Herpes is probably caused by a virus and has been experimentally transferred from person to person. Also the disease has a strange relation to chicken pox which is a known virus disease. It has been noted, for example, that small epidemics of herpes may occur at the same time as chicken pox. Also there are reasons for believing that once in a while a person can develop chicken pox from contact with a patient with shingles and the other way around. There is, however, as yet no vaccine against shingles.

Herpes is shown by a painful, acute inflammation of the skin accompanied by characteristic blisters. It involves only that part of the skin which is reached by certain nerves. It occurs on one side of the body only and is particularly frequent around the chest, just over and parallel to the ribs, and on the forehead, face and lower back and abdomen.

The blisters (which appear several days after the pain starts) begin to open and dry up in a few days and finally disappear altogether.

In the young and middle-aged this usually ends the matter, but in older people severe neuralgic pains often last for months. In elderly people shingles may be a long-lasting affair, causing a great deal of suffering, taxing the patience of the victim, and presenting a truly difficult problem.

Herpes often develops with or immediately after acute infections like pneumonia or meningitis; it can come in epidemics, or without any cause which can be identified.

Many kinds of treatment have been used for shingles with greater or lesser degrees of success. External treatment involves the use of soothing preparations. X-ray treatments have value in some. When herpes appears on the forehead,

But the second safe did not go. It was locked all the way through, said Johnny Bushnell. Bob got the fireman's coal pick swinging optimistically in his hands. Cole let him knock a few futile sparks off the steel box, then shouldered him aside.

Under Cole's tremendous blows, a small hole was literally driven through the safe's top, but the big outlaw's huge paw would not begin to go through it. Jesse took off his coat, rolled up his right sleeve, tapped Cole on the shoulder.

"Never put a plough-horse to a pony's job," he grinned, and slid his small hand and wrist through the jagged opening. Stack by stack, he fished out the neatly bundled currency, toiling in strained silence as the precious minutes flew.

The work was hot and close, the hole in the safe, a forcing razor-edged squeeze even for Jesse's woman-small hand. When the last packet of bills was twisted through the opening, his forearm was coursing blood from wrist to elbow, his face streaming perspiration.

Cole shouldered the sack and moved for the door.

"Where you think you're going?" snarled Jesse. Cole glanced around, saw the quick blink of the pale eyes.

"Aw shucks now, Jess." The grin spread. "I won't be a minute. I'm going to hunt me up a plug hat back yonder."

THE Rocky Cut robbery was on record—as of 10:43 P.M., July 7, 1876. No official accounting of the loot has survived. Express companies are touchy with statistics of this sort.

In long-lasting nerve pain following shingles, nerve injection or surgery may have to be tried. Except for those who have neuralgia after an acute attack the disease is more uncomfortable than serious.

What to Teach Important As How to Teach

Growing emphasis on liberal arts education is a significant trend. Educators are appalled at the lack of information that is apparent in primary and secondary schools, and also at the weakness evident in many teaching staffs. For example, in a recent middle Atlantic state, ninth grade pupils were asked to name ten states other than their own and only one-third of them could do so.

It is necessary for teachers to be trained how to teach, but it is equally important for the teacher to know what to teach. Usually an alert teacher who knows about life has studied humanities courses and is able to instruct her pupils in those courses. There is a danger of too much specialization in education and not enough down-to-earth knowledge of history, language, reading, geography, mathematics and other cultural subjects.

As the colleges stress more and more the humanities courses, and as the public schools require teachers who have been schooled in subject matter as well as method, then the pupils can receive instruction in subjects that will broaden their knowledge and prepare them for a better rounded life.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round-- Pressure Mrs. Hobby to Control Vaccine

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — It was the New York Herald Tribune, a Rock-of-Gibraltar Republican newspaper, that finally pressured Oveta Culp Hobby, the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, into considering federal controls on Salk vaccine.

Previously, she had insisted on keeping federal fingers out of the distribution problem, despite the fact that her department sees to it that other vaccines, used to immunize children against diphtheria, smallpox, whooping cough and tetanus, are made available to parents too poor to buy them.

In other words, Mrs. Hobby has been following one policy for everyday vaccines and an opposite policy for the new Salk vaccine. Yet the demand for Salk shots has reached such hysterical pitch that federal controls are far more necessary for the polio vaccine.

Mrs. Hobby's eyes were finally jarred open by a front-page, Herald Tribune editorial, calling upon her to intervene so young children and pregnant women would get their shots first as proposed by Senator Morse of Oregon three weeks ago. To make sure she read it, the Herald Tribune sent her a copy. Two copies were also distributed to each senator and congressman, together with telegrams calling their attention to the editorial.

With this powerful GOP paper joining the national clamor against the administration's procrastination, Mrs. Hobby relented a bit. She had taken the stand that polio vaccine, like cream cheese, is a commodity and ought to be distributed under a "voluntary" system. Now she reversed herself and agreed to recommend federal controls "if necessary."

NOTE: Mrs. Hobby probably could curb the black market in Salk vaccine by asking doctors to reserve the available supply until June 1 for children under 10 and pregnant women, who are most susceptible to polio. She could also start a program of free shots for under privileged children simply by asking Congress to appropriate extra funds to the children's bureau, which for years has given away vaccine money to the states under its maternal and child health grant program.

"Poor" Mr. Weeks

Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks, champion of the balanced budget, believes in economy for everyone but himself. While he has cut everyone else's budget around the Commerce Department, he has shipped a generous $10,000 allowance into the small print to pay for his own "official" entertaining.

This makes Weeks the first Commerce Secretary in history who has tried to stick the taxpayers for his entertainment bill. Yet, unlike most of his predecessors, he is a millionaire who can afford to pay for his own parties.

Prediction: Congressmen have heard such eloquent economy arguments from Weeks that they'll be persuaded by his own words to eliminate the $10,000 allowance.

Indiana Fires Kill Workers, Injure Others

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Million-dollar fires in opposite corners of northern Indiana yesterday killed three workers, injured several other workers and firemen, destroyed two big industrial plants and damaged two others.

Three men died in the ruins of the Whitley Products, Inc., plant at Columbia City, 20 miles west of Fort Wayne in northeastern Indiana.

Seven other workmen suffered burns and three of them were hospitalized. Company officials said the loss was more than a million dollars.

The dead were identified as Paul B. Walker, 21, Paul Sherwin, 54, and Homer Bowly, 55. Walker, who was married less than three weeks ago, escaped from the burning building and then went back in to try to rescue the others.

At Hammond, in the northwest corner of the state, the Great Lakes Warehouse Corp. building was destroyed, along with its contents. The nearby plants of the American Chemical Service Co. and the Pratt Food Co. were damaged.

The loss of the warehouse building alone was set at a million dollars and there were unofficial estimates that the contents and the damage to the other buildings would add up to another million.

Ten firemen were overcome by smoke as fire departments from five cities fought to keep the flames from spreading.

The Hammond blaze was started by a wind-whipped grass fire. Flames carried from a burning trash pile to a pile of shavings started the Columbia City fire. An explosion spread the fire rapidly.

Aleutian Waters Give Up Remains of Ships Sent by Japanese

TOKYO (AP)—Aleutian waters have yielded the remains of two missing Japanese vessels which disappeared a week ago with 45 men.

The oil-covered bodies of nine crewmen of a missing Japanese research ship were found adrift yesterday. Life jackets identified them with the 15-ton fishery research ship Hatsushio Maru. It had been missing since it radioed May 1 that it was running aground at Agattu Island.

Other Japanese fishing boats reported finding debris from the fishing craft Hoko Maru with 21 aboard, last heard from April 30 when it radioed it was in trouble in Aleutian waters. The Coast Guard said it was "presumed lost with all aboard."

Nine Die In Flames On Chicago Skid Row

CHICAGO (AP)—A flash fire roared through a West Madison Street skid row flop house early today, killing nine men. Twelve others were injured two seriously.

It was the third disastrous fire in the same neighborhood in nine days. On April 28 eight persons were killed in a walkup hotel fire and four others in a blaze in a nearby rooming house.

Today's extra-alarm blaze in the Comfort Hotel at 919 W. Madison St. was brought under control within an hour.

The bodies were found on the upper floors of the five-story brick building. Seven of the nine dead were tentatively identified by James O. Casey, hotel clerk, at the Cook County Morgue.

Firemen searched the ruins for several hours but no additional bodies were found.

Firemen said the hotel contains about 100 cubicles, about 6 by 7 feet, separated by corrugated iron with chicken wire tops, for its residents.

The blaze was confined to the second and third floors of the building. The first floor is occupied by a restaurant.

Police Court

An earlier report stated that a charge against William E. Jeffries, 201 South Lamine, of disturbing the peace of his wife, was dismissed. The report should have read that the charge was disturbing the peace of his former wife, Mrs. Ada Lee Jeffries.

L. D. Masters, 1403 East Sixth, charged with improper parking forfeited a $2 cash bond.

Sue Thurman, Route 1, Sedalia, charged with parking in a loading zone forfeited a $2 cash bond.

Forrest Franklin Ritchey, 120 East Walnut, charged with running a stop sign, forfeited a $5 cash bond.

Russell Thomas, 409 West 20th, charged with running a stop sign, forfeited a $5 cash bond.

George Handley, 803 East Broadway, charged with disturbing the peace of his wife, was fined $25 by Judge R. L. Weinrich. Handley pleaded innocent to the charge. He is confined to the city jail.

The case of William O. Lauderdale, 31, Sedalia Air Force Base, charged with driving a car while intoxicated, was given a continuance to May 16.

Delbert Ray Martensen, 17, 2211 East Broadway, charged with driving a car making excessive noise, forfeited a $10 cash bond.

Ten overtime parkers failed to appear in police court and their cash bonds of $1 were ordered forfeited. Fifty-two overtime parkers paid the ten cent fee at police headquarters for reporting within an hour of the time limit.

Police Reports

A window at the Conoco Service Station, Broadway and Limit, was found open by the police at 10:32 p.m. Thursday night. The officers closed the window.

A window at the Bacon Service Station, Sixth and Osage, was found open by the police at 11 p.m. Thursday. Officers closed the window.

A prowler was reported at 724 West Third at 12:50 a.m. Friday. Police made an investigation but the person succeeded in eluding the officers. A description was obtained and given the officers.

A parking meter on East Second west of Lamine was found pulled from the ground and leaning against a building. It was taken to police headquarters.

Police found a catcher's glove on Massachusetts between Third

Kiwanis Club Gets Traveling Member Scroll

Six members of the Marshall Kiwanis Club participated in an interclub activity by bringing a traveling membership scroll to the Sedalia club.

Official presentation was made by Past President Dr. Hugh Dubois to President Jack Crawford of the local organization. The scroll was originated by the Rolla club and is making the rounds of District IV. It will be the duty of the Sedalia club to pass it on to Versailles Kiwanians.

Other Marshall club members present were: Rufus P. Limpf, Rev. Robert S. Waggoner, Herman Schulte, Ken Noble and George Meuschke.

President Crawford reported that on approval of the board of directors the Sedalia Club was becoming a financial sponsor of the Sedalia Men's Choral Club, the Little League Baseball Club and Sedalia Teen Town. Also the local club will send a Sedalia youngster to Boys' State in Warrensburg June 18-25.

Another impending activity of the club is Pancake Day, 6 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the First Methodist Church dining room, Fourth and Osage, Saturday, May 14. Vice-President Jack Shoemaker reported on committee activities concerning this event and a schedule of work shift assignments involving all club members was distributed.

President Crawford reported that International President Don E. Engdahl will be guest of the Jefferson City Kiwanis Club at a dinner meeting in his honor May 25 and preparations were being made to have a delegation from the Sedalia club attend.

As a part of observance of National Music Week, Russell Maag, club member, sang several solos, with Miss Lillian Fox, accompanist.

Ross Ewing, secretary of the Missouri State Fair, was introduced as a new member of the club on transfer from the Mexico, Mo., Kiwanis Club.

Lt. Gov. Harry Miller, Jefferson City, made a short talk introductory to showing a moving picture entitled, "The Sins of Service," depicting the Kiwanis objectives for 1955. Projection was provided by Fred Marschel, manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Guests were: Andy Anderson, and Fourth on Massachusetts Friday morning. It was taken to police headquarters.

Canada Decides Rainmakers Cut, Not Make Rain

TORONTO (AP)—Canada's government weather service concluded today that commercial rainmaking experiments in parts of the prairie wheat belt caused less—not more—rain to fall.

The report, written by government meteorologist Warren L. Godson, confined its conclusion to the conditions that prevailed in the tests but it estimated that one seventh less rain fell in areas where clouds were seeded than could have been expected if man hadn't prodded nature.

Godson heads the research section of the Canadian Transport Department's Meteorological Division. His report covered experiments carried out in May, June and July of 1953 and 1954 in part of southwest Manitoba and two areas in west central Saskatchewan.

The seeding was done by Canadian affiliates of the Water Resources Development Corp., of Denver, Colo., who worked under contract for farmers in the area. The method was emission of silver iodide particles from ground generators.

The weather service compared the rainfall within the seeded areas with that in nearby unseeded sections. The report said: "The tests provide what seems to be conclusive evidence that cloud-seeding of the type performed . . . does not increase rainfall from the type of storms which provide most of the rain on the prairies during May, June and July."

St. Paul's Aids Synod's Servicemen

St. Paul's Lutheran Church will participate with the more than 5,000 congregations of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in a special offering for the Synod's service people on Mother's Day, May 8.

The offering will be used for the spiritual care of the denomination's youth in the armed services, who number more than 32,000 or one per cent of the total military strength of our country.

Dr. Paul Dannenfeldt, chairman of the Synod's Armed Services Commission, declared: "As long as our young men are called into service, the Church must minister to them."

The program includes the cooperation of more than 500 chaplains and contact pastors, including chaplains and pastors who serve at Veterans Administration Hospitals. The annual Mother's Day offering also sustains 49 service centers at home and overseas. These centers, which are supervised by pastors, offer opportunities for spiritual counseling and informal hospitality. The centers are open to all service people. The program also embraces the monthly mailing of private worship pamphlets and devotional materials. A pictorial pocket magazine "Double-Time" is sent out quarterly.

"Mother's Day is most appropriate for this offering," commented Dr. Dannenfeldt. "Our mothers certainly find comfort in their concern for their sons and daughters, knowing that the Church is always with them."

Witnesses to Hear Delinquency Remedy

Jehovah's Witnesses will have a Bible lecture delivered by W. Meyer Sunday at 2 p.m. at Kingdom Hall, 721 East Third.

The subject will be "Delinquency—What Is Its Remedy?"

Calvary Baptist Completes Plans For Building

The Calvary Baptist Church membership, which a little over a year ago completed a new church auditorium, took another step forward last Wednesday evening in a regular business meeting when it unanimously voted to accept an agreement with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention for a loan with which to complete the first unit of its new educational building.

This unit will join the present building on the west side and will be 40 feet by 70 feet and will provide much needed space for the Bible school, recreation and fellowship.

Work on the new building is expected to begin in the very near future and be completed for the fall months.

In the revival which concluded recently some 33 new members were added to the church.

Mothers' Mission Is Subjects of Sermon By Rev. David Funk

The Rev. David M. Funk, Trinity Lutheran Church, will speak on "The Mission God Gave to Mothers" this Sunday morning. The Sunday School will meet with Robert Finland in charge.

Both the junior and senior choirs will sing special music in honor of Mother's Day.

Sharon Jo Kreiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Kreiser, was baptized. Co-sponsors with Mr. and Mrs. Kreiser were Mr. and Mrs. George Brown.

The Christian Comrade Club will meet Tuesday for their monthly dinner with the program at 6:45 p.m.

The Senior Choir will rehearse Wednesday and the Junior Choir on Friday following school dismissal. The Day Circle of the Ladies Aid will meet at 2 p.m. Thursday.

Eldridge Begins His Pastorate on Sunday, East Sedalia Baptist

Sunday, May 8, will be the Rev. B. E. Eldridge's first Sunday as pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist Church. He comes here from the Carpenter Street Baptist Church in Moberly, and is replacing the Rev. W. P. Arnold, who now has a position at the Baptist state headquarters in Jefferson City.

A large attendance is expected on Mother's Day and the Sunday School and Training Union departments have set attendance goals. The Sunday School, under the superintendency of Irvin Parks, expects 613 present while the Training Union expects 125. Miss Doris Stott is Training Union director.

Regular services will also be held Sunday at the Boonville Street Baptist Mission and the Broadway Baptist Mission. Mid-week prayer meeting will be held at the East church and both missions Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

May 8-14 is Girls' Auxiliary Focus Week and a Mother-Daughter banquet will be given for them Friday at 6:30 p.m.

'Can the American Home Survive?' Topic Of Dr. Hobbs Sunday

For the Mother's Day service at the First Methodist Church worship hour Dr. Elmer L. Hobbs will preach on the subject "Can the American Home Survive?" The Chancel Choir will sing "If With All Your Hearts" by Mendelssohn.

On Wednesday night a family night program will be held beginning with a covered dish dinner, a film and open house in the church school rooms. This will be the last Wednesday night dinner meeting of the season.

The Vacation Church School will begin on May 23 and close June 3. Mrs. C. A. Wyett is principal of the school and she and her workers have been busy for some time preparing for the Vacation School.

Victor Dillman To Conduct Rally At Court House

"If I were Young" will be the rally message topic of the Rev. Homer Marshall, pastor of Cole Camp Methodist Church, at the Inter-denominational Youth for Christ Rally, Saturday evening in the Pettis County courthouse assembly hall.

The rally will be directed by Victor E. Dillman with special music furnished by the music committee and program committee headed by Harold Scott, Smithton. Teenagers from the "50-mile radius area" will participate in the rally.

Miss Dorothy Orcutt, chairman of the board of directors, will be conducting the monthly business session at 7:45, Monday evening. Lester Wolgamuth, assistant chairman, will conduct a 30-minute prayer service beginning at 7:15.

Mrs. Marie Antoine, president and chairman of the Women's Auxiliary Relief Ministry, a Youth for Christ world-wide project, announces that the May mission meeting, open to the public, will be Monday, May 16, 7:30, in the Smithton Christian Church. The WARM movement sends clothing to foreign countries for the needy.

The Rev. Tom Jackson, local Baptist minister, is scheduled to speak at the rally Saturday, May 14.

Calvary Baptist Will Observe Mother's Day At Both Services

Mother's Day will be observed next Sunday in both services at Calvary Baptist Church. The pastor will speak Sunday morning on the subject: "Mother's Faith" and the choir will render the anthem: "God Be With You Mother" by Ellis.

A special Mothers Day message will be given at the evening service and gifts will be given to the oldest and youngest mother.

The following special music will be given at this service: vocal solo, "You Are A Wonderful Mother," Mrs. Jean Green; vocal duet, "If I Could Hear My Mother Pray Again," Mrs. Forrest Merriott and Mrs. Joe Whitfield, and vocal duet, "Angels Bear The News To Mother," Misses Linda Bradley and Charlene Sloan.

Rev. and Mrs. Funk To Attend Convention In Omaha of Synod

The Synod Convention of the Central States will meet in Omaha, Neb., May 9 to 12. The Rev. and Mrs. David M. Funk, Trinity Lutheran Church, will leave Monday for the convention. They will be accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Schmidt, Cole Camp.

The Synod covers the territory of Nebraska, Kansas, parts of Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. The convention will be held in Kootz Memorial Lutheran Church, Omaha.

This church has a membership of over 5,000 and is one of the largest congregations in America. The Rev. Clem Zidler, president of the Synod will preside.

Children's Day In Japan Has Tragedies

TOKYO (AP)—Family suicides and traffic deaths yesterday marred Tokyo's generally gay observance of Children's Day.

A 40-year-old mother jumped in front of a speeding train, with a 2-year-old daughter strapped to her back and a 6-year-old daughter in her arms. The mother and baby were killed, the other child critically injured.

Three small boys were in critical condition in a hospital from poison which police said had been given them by their destitute parents.

Eight children were killed and at least a score were injured in traffic accidents.

Drops Excess Names After No Inheritance

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Superior Court has approved the petition of a screen writer to reduce the total of his names from six to two. Frank Stanley Gilman Borden Chase Fowler obtained permission yesterday to narrow his name down to Borden Chase. He explained:

"I was named after a flock of river relatives but it didn't take, I never inherited a thing. So I picked the name Borden Chase out of the lot for a pen name. I used the Borden on account of the milk and the Chase because of the bank."

The King James Version of the Bible and correlative passages from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will comprise the lesson-sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man." Among the passages to be read from Science and Health is the following: "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than poor, thought-maddened man as fallen, sick, sinning and dying." (239-6-11.) The golden text is from 1 Corinthians (13:22): "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

S-C Graduates Will Be Feted By Baptists

The Pastor's subjects at the First Baptist Church, Sunday, May 8, will be morning, "Parents and Children" and in the evening, "On Making Good". Special music for the morning service will be an anthem entitled, "Flowers for Mother", and there will also be special music for the evening service. Sunday will be Mother's Day, and one of the features of the morning worship will be a recognition of the Cradle Roll members, workers, and mothers.

At the evening hour, the Smith-Cotton High School graduates of the church will be present to worship in a group. Preceding the worship, the training union will be at 6:45 and during the training union hour the pastor will continue a study will all new members and others who may desire to study together the meaning of church membership.

On Tuesday evening at 6:30, the Smith Cotton High School graduates of the church, including those who are members and those who attend the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church, will be honored at a dinner. The heads of the various departments of the church will be hosts to this group.

On Wednesday evening at 7:45, the mid-week worship services of the church will be held. Prayer, praise, and Bible study will be features of this worship hour. Members and friends are invited and urged to be present.

Festival of Home At Immanuel Church For Worship Hour Service

The Festival of the Christian Home will be observed at Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed Church Sunday morning, 10:35 a.m. for the church worship hour. At 5:00 p.m. Sunday, the Youth Fellowship will meet at the Church.

Monday, Pastor Klemme will serve as instructor for the orientation of the camp staff of the Junior-Senior High Camp (Camp Kan-ebwa), located near Sabetha, Kan.

The annual Mother - Daughter Banquet will be held in the dining hall of the Immanuel Church Service Building, Tuesday, May 10, beginning at 6 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. N. B. Patton or Mrs. Russell Sharpe. Cost of adult ticket is $1. and for children, .50 cents.

Thursday those attending the Women's Guild Biennial at Billingsville, Mo., will meet at the church at 8:30 a.m.

Television Portrays Harrowing Escape Of Iron Curtain Nun

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A nun who in 1952 was sought by the Communists made her television debut last night with Claudette Colbert.

Miss Colbert played the role of the nun who survived one of the more harrowing ordeals of all refugees from the Iron Curtain in the CBS-TV Climax series — "The Deliverance of St. Cecilia."

As a dramatic surprise, Sister Cecilia appeared on the program with Miss Colbert and preached on American freedom.

The nun, a member of the Daughters of the Holy Saviour order, took her first look at the script yesterday at a rehearsal and insisted on changes which were made.

"They played me up too much," she said.

Sister Cecilia is now assigned to Holy Redeemer College near Oakland, Calif. Her dramatic flight from the Communists, while dressed as a peasant woman, was the subject of a magazine article a year ago. She is a native of Czechoslovakia.

Rev. Reifel to Speak On 'Hating Mother'

Sunday School Lesson Notes

By William E. Gilroy, D.D.

The history of the Jewish people, in the divided kingdoms of Judah and Israel, offers case material of incisive interest and profit in its bearing upon social and national welfare and destiny.

The period of time extended from the death of Solomon and the disruption under his son, Rehoboam, until the fall of the northern kingdom in 722 B.C., and the exile of the people of the southern kingdom to Babylon in 586 B.C.

It is this quality of timelessness that keeps the historical books of the Old Testament so insistently alive.

Generations, though they have not always heeded the lessons, have found in this history of the Jewish people the crucial evidence of what has happened, is happening, and can happen to nations and peoples, when wisdom, vision, and righteousness prevail. Or when injustice, inhumanity, and immorality are allowed to do their festering work of destruction.

The history of each king, or prophet, is a part of the story; but of the kings as individuals there is a monotony in the record. Both in the kingdom of Judah and in the kingdom of Israel, the story is so often the same, of a king who "did evil in the sight of the Lord," misruled his people and misled them into idolatry (which meant into moral decadence and corruption).

Here and there the record is broken, with a king who did good, like Asa (II Chronicles 14-16), and his son, Jehoshaphat (II Chronicles 17); and like the young king, Joash, who escaped to become king in the slaughter of all of his kin (II Chronicles 22:10-12). The contrast between the zeal for righteousness of Jehoshaphat and the wickedness of his son, Ahaziah, who succeeded him, is again emphasized as Joash, Ahaziah's son, returns to the ways of his grandfather, rebuilding "the house of the Lord," and ruling well in his forty years on the throne.

But these chapters in the ancient story in the Second Book of Chronicles, like so much in all the history of kings and dynasties, are red with massacre, as well as corrupt with wickedness and violence.

The story of Ahab and Jezebel enters into the record, for, while Jehoshaphat ruled righteously in Judah, Omri, a wicked king, usurped power in the Northern Kingdom of Israel, and was succeeded by the more famous and equally wicked Ahab.

It is here that Athaliah comes in, a woman comparable to Jezebel in her ruthless cruelty. It was she who had all the seed royal of the house of Judah slaughtered, when Joash was hidden and escaped. She was the wife of Jehoram, who succeeded Jehoshaphat, and as the daughter of Omri was the sister off Ahab.

The record perpetuates itself. We know of evil entanglements in high places even in comparatively modern times.

It was to Jehoshaphat's credit that he maintained his integrity in spite of the military alliance with Ahab, that nearly cost him his life, in the battle in which Ahab was slain.

The vivid story of the battle is in II Chronicles 18, and to me the most interesting figure is the certain man "who drew a bow at a venture." It was his arrow that killed King Ahab. The moral of the story to me is that if you're facing the right way, and doing your best, even if you can't see clearly, you never know how great your act or your influence may be.

Episcopal Diocese Offers Spiritual Aid To Aut Negotiators

DETROIT (AP)—The Episcopal diocese of Michigan today offered spiritual assistance to company and union negotiators now bargaining on new contracts in the auto industry. It was in the form of a prayer sent to the 152 parishes and missions in the diocese. Bishops Richard Emrich and Archie H. Crowley said the "most important thing all of us can do is to pray for those who are so closely involved."

Bengal Baseball Team Bows To Lebanon In Sub-District

S-C Tigers Eliminated From Tourney 6-4 In Finals Thursday Following Win Over Buffalo

The Lebanon High School Thursday afternoon eliminated the Smith-Cotton Tigers in the Sub-District Tournament 6-4 in a game played at Lebanon. Lebanon now travels to the District Tournament to be held at Joplin next week.

Opening the game the Tigers drew a walk for Lane, three straight hits followed, Case, Mines and Barbour, resulting in both Lane and Case scoring. Then in the fourth they added another on Abney's home run. The fourth tally for the Sedalians came in the seventh when Newman made first on an error, traveled to second on another error, and when Lane got a safety Newman scored.

The Tigers held a one-run edge after the first inning after passing one run made by Lebanon who scored on in the top of the inning. That one run came on a two base bing by Gaines followed by a hit by Brown on which Gaines scored. Lebanon bounced back in the top of the fourth when a safety by Atkins followed by an error on this was followed by a circuit Newman put him on second base, drive off the bat of Skelton and both scored. This put the opponents ahead until the bottom half when the Tigers scored their one run to tie it up.

In the seventh Lebanon tallied another run when McAllister smashed out a fence rattler for a homer. The Tigers tied that up. But in the top of the eighth the necessary margin came when Brown hit a safety and was followed by Atkins who drove the ball out for a home run to score Brown ahead of him.

Last Monday the Tigers defeated Buffalo to go to the finals in the Sub-District.

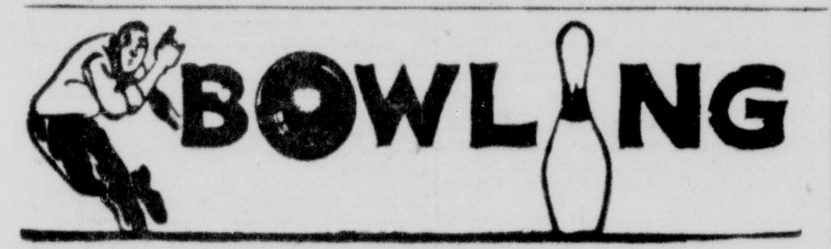

The game with Lebanon ended the baseball season for the Smith-Cotton High School, the team already having completed their schedule in the Central Missouri Conference, beating both Jefferson City and Missouri Military Acad-

Harper Leads Parade At Colonial Tourney With One Under Par

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Chandler Harper of Chattanooga, led an "old-timers" parade into the second round of the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament.

The balding veteran who is making his twenty-first tour of the tournament field, posted a 1-under-par 69 in the opening round. He was joined around the top by such long-timers as Johnny Palmer of Charlotte, N.C.; Ed Oliver of Leont, Ill.; Tommy Bolt of Houston and Texans Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan.

Gene Littler of Palm Springs, Calif., standard-bearer of the young golfers had a miserable 77. In second place were the steady Palmer and Jack Fleck, each with a par 70, while tied at 71 were Oliver, Bolt and Leo Biagetti. Hogan was in a tie at 72 with Nelson, Jerry Barber of Los Angeles,

Dodgers Clip Cardinals On No-Hit Run

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Brooklyn Dodgers have been using home runs to win ball games, but a run without hits brought their latest victory, a 4-3 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals at Ebbetts Field yesterday.

Harvey Haddix pitched just one inning, drew his third loss of the season, and was spiked on the play which led to the Dodger triumph.

The teams were tied 3-3 in the eighth inning, but Haddix walked Duke Snider, first man up in the Dodger half. Roy Campanella laid down a sacrifice which Catcher Bill Sarni handled. Campanella was out but Haddix was spiked in the action and Snider, seeing third unguarded, gained an extra base.

Another sacrifice by Rube Walker, after Frank Smith replaced Haddix, scored Snider.

Larry Jackson was the Redbird starter, giving up eight hits, including a homer by Clem Labine, before Haddix relieved him during a Brooklyn threat in the seventh.

The St. Louisans took a fast start with one run in the opening inning. Wally Moon walked. A wild pitch by Tom Lasorda sent Moon to second. Bill Virdon also walked and another wild pitch advanced both runners. The third wild pitch by Lasorda in the inning allowed Moon to score.

A walk to Virdon and singles by Stan Musial and Rip Repulski scored another run in the third. Labine homered in the Brooklyn third, then a walk to Junior Gilliam and singles by Peeewe Reese, Campanella and Sandy Amoros made it 3-2 Dodgers.

BACK ON MOUND — Former Yankee hurler Vic Raschi, recently given an unconditional release by the St. Louis Cardinals, makes his first pitch in the uniform of the Kansas City Athletics as he started the game with the Baltimore Orioles in Kansas City. Raschi stepped aside for a pinch hitter in the fourth inning after striking out three men and giving up three hits in his four innings. Wilson, 9 for 4 runs in 8 innings. Winning pitcher, Wilson. Losing pitcher, McCown.

Paige Training For A's Tryout After Road Trip

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Old Satchel Paige says the Kansas City Athletics might pull one of the greatest surprises in baseball if his old boss, Manager Lou Boudreau, had a smart old relief pitcher in his bullpen.

And Satch said last night he knows where Boudreau can get one more than two home run licks from the A's home park. That's right, Satch says he is getting in shape as fast as possible and will be ready to offer his services when the Athletics get back home from their road trip East.

Paige first went to the majors with Cleveland in 1948, under Boudreau, when most pitchers his age had retired. Satchel says he is at least 48 and "could be" considerably older.

But Satchel has been running to get his legs in shape and will start throwing Sunday. Then he's going to see if the A's are interested.

"The Athletics look good to me," says Paige who has been out of organized ball since the Baltimore Orioles released him in the winter of 1954. "Any team that can come from behind will do pretty good. Some teams get behind and just flop but the A's don't do it that way. There is no telling where they will stop."

Freak Milk Has Offer

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Hannah H. O'Connor is busy turning down offers of up to $100 for a freak bill she found recently in her pay envelope.

The bill is marked $10 on one side and $1 on the other. The U.S. Bureau of Engraving commented yesterday that it was a mistake that happens maybe once in 150 million times.

Sports Roundup—

Archie Moore Takes on Bobo In Lightweight Title Bout

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Not the least interesting phase of the current boxing situation is the fact that a fellow who demonstrated recently he is a whale of a fighter at 196½ pounds—probably the second best heavyweight in the world — has signed to defend his 175-pound championship against the best 160-pounder in the universe.

In other words, Archie Moore, having finally realized he was bucking a fixed wheel in trying to get a title fight with Rocky Marciano, will give Bobo Olson a shot at his light heavy crown at the Polo Grounds June 22. It would seem that more than 30 pounds separates the pair at their best, and that's a lot of suet.

From all accounts, the 38-year-old Archie was a whole lot of heavyweight in his decisive beating of Nino Valdes the other night in Las Vegas. Eyewitnesses said the veteran Negro looked slow in the beginning, as though he were totting more weight than he needed, but that toward the close of the bruising 15-rounder he appeared to have found himself into the pink of condition.

He's a remarkable physical specimen. It seems almost incredible that any human can fight at or near his best over a range of 20 or more pounds yet Archie has been doing just that for so long now that the fraternity takes it for granted he will pare himself down to 175 for Olson and enter the ring at full strength.

There was speculation that the remarkable olderster would be unable to make the weight for his title defense against Harold Johnson last August. Only two months before he had scaled 189½ for a nontitle outing. Yet when the appointed day came the champ notched a trim 173, and that night he stopped the young opponent in the 14th round.

81st Running of Kentucky Derby Richest Of All Time

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The 81st running of the $125,000-added Kentucky Derby tomorrow will go to the horse able to carry his speed over the mile and one quarter of Churchill Downs' oval in close to 2 minutes and 2 seconds.

That was the consensus of the trainers of the hand-picked field of 3-year-old colts as the names of horses were dropped into the entry box this morning. A field of 10 was expected for this richest of all derbies.

Although it'll be the smallest field since Citation beat five rivals in 1948, the value will gross $152,500, with the winner earning a net of $108,400 if as many as 10 parade to the post for the start at 4:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Radio and television descriptive of America's glamor race by CBS is scheduled from 4:15 to 4:45.

Answers to the question of how fast the race will be run brought times varying from 2:02 to 2:04. If the track remains fast, Whirlaway's record of 1:01.4 in 1941 may well be in jeopardy.

There is every prospect the racing strip will be at its best. The weatherman said no rain is in sight and predicted perfect overhead conditions for the expected turnout of 100,000 with the skies clear and the highest temperature in the low 80s.

Nashua, the 4-5 favorite from William Woodward's Blair Stud, is capable of running the distance in 2:02 in the opinion of Sherrill Ward, trainer of Mrs. John W. Galbreath's Summer Tan, the 2-1 second choice. Summer Tan has been edged by Nashua in four of their five clashes. Ward, however, declined to say if he thinks his son of Heliopolis can travel that fast.

Bart Sweeney, who'll saddle Nashua in the absence of 30-year-old Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, sees the Blair Stud ace winning in 2:02.

"And we don't care if the track is cobblestones," he said with a twinkle in his Irish eyes. "This horse can run on anything."

Mesach (Mickey) Tenney, trainer of Rex Ellsworth's Swaps, the 6-1 third choice, said his California-owned colt can do 2:03 or a little better and can run on any kind of a track.

"He has run only one bad race and when he returned to the stables after that one at Hollywood Park he had a fever of 105 degrees," said Tenney. "I definitely think we have the contender."

Jaycees Trounce Kilowatts 16 to 5; Blues Nip Hornets

The Jaycees softball team went on a scoring spree Thursday night and defeated the Kilowatts by a 16-5 score at the Housel Park diamond in the Sedalia Industrial League. The Adco Blues squeezed by the Brown's Hornets to win the second game 9-8.

Lyles, the Jaycee hurler, allowed six hits, walked four and struck out two, while his teammates played tight ball and made but one lone error. Janny of the Kilowatts, the losing hurler gave up 16 hits, walked five but had good backing from his mates, who chalked up but two errors.

Homers were hit by Don Weller of the Jaycees and Robinson of the Kilowatts.

In the Blues-Hornets game Walker, the losing pitcher, gave up 13 hits, walked three, while his teammates went through the game without a bobble. Raybourn on the mound, allowed three hits walked five and struck out three. He was given relief by See who walked seven, allowed one hit and had no strikeouts, but the team squeezed over the winning run.

Richardson homered in the fourth for the Hornets. Walker doubled in the ninth and drove in three runs.

The annual Polio benefit game is to be played Sunday on the Housel Park diamond, starting at 2:00 o'clock between the Brown's Hornets and the National Engineering and Manufacturing Co. teams.

Monies from the game go to the Pettis County polio fund.

Mederos Fills Fight TV Spot With Johnson

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold Johnson meets Cuban heavyweight Julio Mederos in one of those "show must go on" television bouts at the Arena tonight.

Johnson, 26, perennial contender for the light-heavyweight title, was slated for a 10-round bout with Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, but the latter was forced to withdraw because of a training injury. Mederos was brought in as a substitute.

There was a time when fights were canceled or postponed when one of the combatant was injured in training. But in the modern fight world, the show must go on. The promoter has a TV commitment.

"I asked him whether Becker had advised him he was to pitch in Chicago and Cincinnati," Alston related at a press conference later. "He said 'yes.' I asked him if it was true that he still had refused to pitch batting practice. Again he said, 'yes.'"

"It was no use talking to him any more. I simply told him I didn't want to argue with him, and the only thing left for him to do was to take off his uniform and go home."

Alston said it was the second time within 10 days that Newcombe balked at pitching batting practice.

Conferences Precede Key Dulles Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower called in his top military-diplomatic advisers for White House talks today before Secretary of State Dulles' departure for Paris meetings on Far Eastern problems and Western Europe's defense.

Summoned to the session with the President were Dulles, Secretary of Defense Wilson, Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Dulles planned to take off for Paris late in the day to attend a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Council at which West Germany will become the 15th member. He has arranged also to talk with French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay and British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan about Far Eastern matters.

He is expected to press Pinay to give strong support to Premier Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam, whom the French a week or so ago were saying was inadequate for his job but whose regime they have more recently seemed willing to back.

Diplomats said the ministers will attempt to evaluate evidence that the Communists are trying to make some peaceful adjustments. This evidence includes Red Chinese talk about negotiations with the United States on easing Far Eastern tensions and Soviet moves to complete an Austrian independence treaty.

The evaluation will have a direct bearing upon what the Big Three Western ministers decide to do about proposing a Big Four conference.

Little Girl Finances Bus Trip for Class To Say Bon Voyage

NEW YORK (AP) — Nine-year-old Suzanne Struckmann of Pottstown, Pa., wasn't too happy about leaving her fourth grade classmates—even for a trip to Europe.

So, before the liner America sailed yesterday, Suzanne's class—28 strong—was on hand to wish her bon voyage.

The little girl used $180 from her own bank account to have her class, plus six chaperones, come here by chartered bus.

Suzanne sailed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Struckmann; her sister, Gloria, 18, and brother, William, 6.

Struckmann, vice president and production manager of a Pottstown pie company, is taking his family to visit his parents in Hannover, Germany, which he left 25 years ago.

Modern System Fails False Alarm Tests So Use Run and Yell

WINCHESTER, Idaho (AP) — The Winchester volunteer firemen tired of turning out to false alarms on a new-fangled siren system, are going back to the old-fashioned run-and-yell method.

The fire siren now sounds off when anyone dials the department number on the telephone. The modern system was installed just last December, but City Clerk Walter Dugger said the station telephone will be removed today.

It seems the siren has been waiting false alarms four or five times a day.

Dugger said citizens will have to phone someone who lives near the fire station when they discover a blaze or they can run down and report it to the volunteers in person.

Reds Sign Trade Pact

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP) — Red China's 38-man trade delegation left Japan today aboard the Soviet merchant ship Dobrolubov after signing with Japanese business men a private $4-million-dollar barter trade agreement.

Beer for Vitamins

TOKYO (AP) — Dr. Masayoshi Watanabe, of Hotoku Hospital, Tokyo, told the annual convention of the Japan Vitamin Research Society that one bottle of beer a day will supply all the vitamin C a person needs. He said it comes from the germ portion of grain used to brew beer.

Rules Changes In Irrigation Affects Pettis

It is possible that some recent changes in the regulations for administering the Soil and Water loans for irrigation purposes may have a bearing on some Pettis County farmers. According to Oscar H. DeWolf, local FHA Supervisor, when the irrigation phase of the Soil and Water Conservation program was announced last fall, the regulations required that State laws governing the use of water from streams be followed. In the absence of state laws, it was required that the applicant establish the right to show he would have sufficient water available and would not be enjoined from its use. This practically made it impossible to process a Soil and Water loan to irrigate from a stream in Missouri.

Recent changes in this procedure now permit the making of irrigation loans to those people who have the security for such loans, are otherwise eligible, and are willing to take the chance that they will not be enjoined in using the water from the stream. This will permit the making of loans for irrigation that would have been prohibited under the previous regulations.

The Farmers Home Administration office serving this county is located at 209 1/2 South Ohio.

Parliament Session Ends; New Commons Will Open June 7

LONDON (AP) — Britain's current Parliament went out of existence today. The nation was left without a legislature until June 7.

The new House of Commons to be chosen in the May 26 national elections will sit then for the first time.

Prime Minister Eden and his Cabinet continue to run their various departments. They do not resign until after the election—either for Eden to form a new cabinet or for the Conservatives to win, or for the Laborites to take over the government if they are victorious.

Dissolution of parliament—less than three weeks after reassembling from its Easter recess—was proclaimed by Queen Elizabeth II to set in motion the statutory machinery for the May 26 elections.

Couldn't Go Very Far

SCOTTSDALE, Neb. (AP) — A woman telephoned police to ask help. She said she didn't know where she was but would find out and call back. She didn't call back, and police couldn't find her. But they wondered where she had gone because her complaint was that somebody had stolen the steering wheel from her car.

Peron Battle With Church Nears Break

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — President Peron's dispute with the Roman Catholic Church neared a head today as the Peronista-dominated Congress studied two measures to break the ties between the state and the church.

The House yesterday received a proposal backed by Peron's party to terminate the Catholic Church as the official state religion.

At the same time a bill was introduced in the Senate to outlaw Catholic religious teaching in public schools. The measure is expected to clear both houses quickly and be signed into law by Peron.

The proposal before the House calls for election of a national assembly to eliminate from the constitution all privileges granted the Catholic Church as the state religion.

Peron began his running battle with the church six months ago by accusing some members of the clergy of seeking to undermine his regime. The church vigorously denied the charge, both in statements locally and in the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano. Eighteen priests have been arrested in Argentina since last November.

Argentine prelates have protested against Peron's efforts to break the ties linking church and state. They contend the church does not oppose division of powers between church and state, but strongly opposes the "moral" separation of the two.

Italy's Policy Firm Says Envoy In Talk

HOUSTON (AP) — Italian Ambassador Manlio Brosio says his country's policy is "clear and firm" on three points:

1. Unflinching loyalty to the Atlantic union.
2. A constant effort toward European union.
3. Friendship toward the United States.

"You may rely on us," he told an audience of about 500 persons at a dinner in his honor last night.

Share-the-Fun Contest Results Are Announced

Results of the 4-H Club Share-the-Fun contest at the Prairie Home High School Friday night were announced Saturday by Miss Jeannette Palmer, county home agent. Sixty-five members represented nine clubs in the contest.

Blue ribbon winners will represent Cooper County in a district contest. Those from Pilot Grove and community winning blue ribbons are: twirling, Happy Workers of Pilot Grove 4-H; Mary Deer, and Marjorie Stegner.

Red ribbon winners were "America Beautiful" by Ralph, Donald and Paty Schupp. Folk dance winners were the Happy Workers of Pilot Grove 4-H: Joan Stoeklein, Dick Jeffress, Jackie Sweitzer, Jeannette Knipf, Jimmie Brownfield, Sharon Rentel, Kenneth Day and Kathy Luttrell.

White ribbon awards were won for a song by Clear Creek 4-H, Joyce Twenter, Joyce Rentel, Jeannette Wessing, and Dorothy Ellebracht.

Set Off Atomic Blast

Explosion Causes Severe Damage To Model Town; Observers Unhurt

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev., May 5.—A savage atomic test explosion today severely damaged Domsday Drive, less than half a mile from the nuclear blast.

But while the 35-kiloton blast smashed buildings in Survival City, men and women in close-up trenches and soldiers in stout tanks came through unscathed.

Civil Defense photographers wearing Rad radiation safe suits entered the dust-shrouded area hours after the blast to take the first pictures of the wreckage.

House Is Mass Of Wreckage

Photos showed a two-story brick house on Domsday Drive, 4,700 yards from Ground Zero, to be a mass of wreckage. This was the Darling family home, occupied by mannequins, whose fate is not yet known.

Presumably those in rooms on the first and second stories were destroyed. However, two mannequins in a wooden bomb shelter in the basement were not moved by the blast. Both a father and son—were covered with dust.

A one-story frame house on the same street also was destroyed. But a reinforced masonry block house next to it withstood the mighty shock and searing fire. However, a radio transmitter in the block house was knocked off the air.

A gas tank containing heating fuel and a transformer and electric substation in the same area also survived the tremendous impact, the photographs disclosed.

Concrete House Withstands Shock

A precast concrete house stood up under the terrific impact, but its windows were blown out. A 150-foot radio tower, strengthened by guy wires, was bent.

Air photos showed that house trailers were overturned two miles from ground zero.

Newsman and television cameras will enter the area tomorrow for a detailed report on damage.

Immediately after the blast a vast cloud of dust veiled up from the desert floor, covering the test town like a brown shroud.

On the opposite side of the shot tower—which vanished in the twinkling of an eye as unearthly heat vaporized everything near the explosion—was an atomic battle-ground, like that which may await soldiers on some tomorrow.

Deployed there at the hour of explosion was a narrow task force—35 medium tanks and supporting armored personnel carriers.

Soldiers 2 Miles Away

Shut safely behind the three-inch steel turrets of the tanks and the protection of the personnel carriers were more than 200 soldiers, with a half dozen newsmen.

When it was over, they knew men could survive, unhurt, an atomic bomb explosion of virtually major force at a distance of slightly less than two miles. Infantry troops crouched in trenches a few hundred yards behind the tank force.

In a Civil Defense trench just two miles from the blast, it was a blinding silence, the shudders of an earthquake, and then the crashing roar of furious sound and a hurricane of dust, sand and stone to Associated Press Science Reporter Alton L. Blakeslee.

It struck in waves, hammering at six women and 13 men Civil Defense volunteers. Awed, dazzled with hearts thumping, they experienced a prime lesson of atomic war—that adequate shelter and knowledge can often save human blood and life.

Picket Lines Removed From Firm By AFL Striking Truck Drivers

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—Picket lines were removed from a building materials firm by striking AFL Truck Drivers today, bringing the second break in a strike which began Monday.

Officials of Teamsters Local 682 declined to say why the pickets were removed from Dennis Materials Co., at State Highway 30 and Meramec River.

A company official said no contract with the union had been signed. The firm is member of the St. Louis Material Dealers' Assn., a group of firms against which about 600 truck drivers are striking.

To Forgive Quitters Of '52—

Demos Offer Welcoming Hand To 'Penitent' Bolters Of Party

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Democratic high command held out a forgiving hand today to any Democrats who bolted the party ticket in 1952 and now "want to return to the fold."

One of the bolters, Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, indicated he would like to come back—provided the Democrats don't nominate Adlai E. Stevenson for the presidency again.

Demos, Shivers, Butler Meet
Shivers and National Chairman Paul M. Butler took a few puffs on the party peace pipe in a 15-minute conference in the pantry, at a breakfast at the Capitol of seven Democratic governors and Senate and House Democratic leaders.

But the extent to which things were patched up between national headquarters and Texas Democrats who backed President Eisenhower in 1952 was obscured a bit in the smoke.

Butler told reporters: "If Democrats are realistic enough to look for converts outside the party, as they do, they have to be realistic enough to take back any penitents who want to return to the fold."

But he also said that "if they do, we have the right to assume they will support the nominee of the convention." From what Shivers said, Butler added, he assumes the Texas governor will support the nominee.

Still Opposes Stevenson

Shivers repeated that he still is against Stevenson. But he said he assured Butler that he hoped next

Communications Mixup Causes Air Alert In West

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 5.—A mixup in air defense communications caused a "real thing" air alert in most of the western United States at mid-morning today.

The Air Force blamed it on failure to notify the Western Command of a training flight of B47 jet bombers.

Response to the alert varied. Air Force headquarters in Washington asked the Air Defense Command for a full explanation. It would be on this system that the air defense of the entire United States would depend in case of a genuine attack.

The alarm, at 10:40 a.m. MST, lasted officially from three to 10 minutes, ranging over a dozen states from Louisiana to the Pacific Coast.

It was long enough to set sirens screaming and Civil Defense workers scrambling in Oakland, Calif., and other cities.

It was short enough that whole states such as Colorado and Nevada, were not alerted.

Reds Hit Quemoy's With Heavy Shells

TAIPEI, Formosa, May 5.—The Chinese Communists today loosed one of the heaviest shelling of the year in the Quemoy's across Formosa Strait close on the heels of their first aerial thrust in the Matsui area.

The Defense Ministry said that in 45 minutes Red artillery on Amoy fired 150 rounds into little Quemoy Island, four miles away. There were no further details.

Little Quemoy, 22 square miles and stoutly defended, guards the western flank of Quemoy, largest and strongest of the offshore islands.

Chamber Board Sets Meeting for Month

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Board will be held at 3 p. m. Tuesday, May 10.

Robert G. McCreery, manager of the Tulsa district of Chamber of Commerce of the United States, will be a visitor.

year's convention "can select a man and a platform which all good Democrats can support."

Then the governor did a bit of hedging, too. He said he could support Stevenson only if the former Illinois governor changes considerably—he probably would even "have to change his name."

But to a question whether he would refuse to back Stevenson again regardless of whom the Republicans might pick, Shivers replied: "No, no; certainly not."

Butler, who was tapped for the national chairmanship by Stevenson forces within the party, said he doesn't know whether Stevenson has any intention of working for the 1956 nomination or whether he would get it if he did.

No Demand For Stevenson Bid

Certainly there was no overwhelming demand for a second try by Stevenson from Democratic governors and party officials who have been looking over 1956 prospects for the last two days. In fact, there was an indication here and there that some men of power in the party may be somewhat less than enthusiastic about Stevenson, particularly if he is a "reluctant" candidate for the nomination, as in 1952. That appeared to be the attitude, for example, of Carmine de Sapio, New York national committeeman and Tammany chieftain.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, who once said Stevenson appeared to be a cinch for the nomination next year, said the party has "plenty of candidates" to pick from.

Whoever runs, the Democrats are talking of winning in 1956.

Firm Awarded $1,598,315 Judgment

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—A circuit court judgment of $1,598,315 was returned against a subsidiary of the H. K. Porter Co. of Pittsburgh today in connection with Porter's purchase two years ago of the A. Leschen & Sons Wire Rope Co. of St. Louis.

The judgment was in favor of members of the Leschen family who refused to sell their stock in the St. Louis firm, saying the Porter firm was not paying a fair value for the stock.

The case, heard by Circuit Judge James E. McLaughlin without a jury, was one of the first under Missouri's fair values law.

The Pittsburgh firm paid $1,448,000 for 70 per cent of the stock in the Leschen firm, or $75 per share. Judge McLaughlin today fixed the fair value of the stock at $3,666,432, or $184.80 a share.

Under the fair values statute, holders of stock in a firm may elect to sell their stock at a fair value instead of accepting securities in another company.

Bus Destroyed By Fire

BOONVILLE, Mo., May 5.—The Highway Patrol reported today a bus owned by Harry J. Robinson, New Franklin, was destroyed by fire on State Highway 41 near Arrow Rock early today.

Robinson told the patrol that the bus had been left on the shoulder of the highway after it developed mechanical trouble. It was en route to Kansas City.

Robinson has been operating a bus line between here and Fayette, but it ceased operation Monday. Robinson said he had sold the bus.

ALL IN A WEEK'S WORK—These city employees paused in the midst of their Clean-Up Week labor while the photographer recorded the mass spring cleaning of Sedalia. These are city trucks, but other commercial trucks were hired to assist in the giant job.

Continued Security Imminent

See No Early End To US Plan Of Grants, Loans To Friendly Nations

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Secretary of State Dulles told Congress today he sees no early end to America's mutual security program of grants and loans to friendly nations.

He made the statement in testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the Eisenhower administration's $3½-billion dollar foreign aid appropriation request.

Dulles Favors Program

Pressed by committee members Barkley (D-Ky.), Dulles declared: "I think we will have to have a program of this kind for a considerable length of time."

Even if the program were suddenly halted, Dulles said, it would take about two years for the pipeline to dry up. In other words, the tanks and guns of military aid ordered but not paid for last year will be coming off the assembly line for a couple of more years.

Dulles' prepared statement, sounding a hopeful note in world affairs, credited the U. S. mutual assistance program with "measurable success" in creating conditions favorable to peace.

"The price we are paying for this result I consider to be a reasonable price when measured in terms of the attainable results," Dulles said.

Hopes For Easing Tensions

He expressed his hope for easing East-West tensions this way:

"A series of small but perhaps significant signs suggest that the time may be nearing when those who have been seeking the conquest of freedom will in fact put their foreign relations on a more tolerable basis."

"There are still bad spots . . . Nevertheless I do feel a certain sense of encouragement because today the tactics of the international Communists suggest that they realize that the Free World is in fact strong and that they do have to give up some of the courses they once selected."

US Must Continue Foreign Aid

To keep the Free World strong, Dulles said, the United States must continue its foreign aid. Because of Europe's remarkable recovery from postwar paralysis, he said the emphasis can be shifted to Asia where "international communism is pressing hard to extend its influence."

By areas Dulles broke down the program's $12½ billion dollar non-military aid this way:

21 million for Europe, chiefly West Berlin; 52½ million for Latin America 179 million for the Middle East; 337½ million for Asia, including a 200 million dollar special regional development fund and 222½ million for nonregional programs, including a 100-million-dollar presidential contingency fund as well as such multilateral aid systems.

Polio Cases Increase Past Week With 147

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Public Health Service said today new polio cases reported by the states for last week totaled 147 as compared with 106 in the previous week.

Last week's figures also showed a gain, of about one-fifth, above the 122 for the corresponding week of last year.

Top Trainer Of Race Horses Leaps To Death

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Robert Hyatt McDaniel, 44, the nation's top trainer of race horses, leaped to his death today from the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

Three persons said they saw McDaniel stop his Cadillac 100 yards west of Yerba Buena Island, walk to the railing of the bridge and leap over without hesitation.

Highleyman Honorary Life Member—
Mr., Mrs. Sam Highleyman Honored By Local Elks Club

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Highleyman, 1020 State Fair Blvd., were honored at a Smorgasbord held in the basement of the B.P.O. Elks Club, Fourth and Kentucky, Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Highleyman leave Monday for Laguna Beach, Calif., where they will make their home.

Wednesday night the Sedalia Lodge No. 125 B.P.O. Elks honored Mr. Highleyman when it was unanimously voted to present him with a Honorary Life Membership in the B. P. O. Elks. It was the sixth such honor which has been bestowed upon members of the Sedalia Lodge in over 50 years.

He served through all of the chairs of the local lodge and is Past Exalted Ruler of the Lodge. He later served as District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the Southwestern District of the Elks during which time he visited all lodges in the district and acted as a Goodwill Ambassador for the Sedalia lodge as well as representing the Grand Lodge of the Elks.

Since becoming a member of the local group in 1941 he has been very active in the affairs of the lodge.

Honored At Smorgasbord
The Smorgasbord Thursday was to honor not only Mr. Highleyman but also Mrs. Highleyman.

More than 130 members of the lodge, their wives and several guests were in attendance. The Smorgasbord was prepared by the Food Committee of which Charles Simon is chairman.

Wheat Futures Score Advances On Trade Board

CHICAGO, May 5.—Wheat advanced again today on the Board of Trade but the pace of the advance was considerably slowed down from the previous two sessions.

Rye ended wheat higher. Feed grains followed mixed with only small price changes. After fluctuating on either side of the previous close, soybeans sold off in the last half hour to end with mostly small losses.

Wheat closed 1/4 to 1 1/4 cents higher, oats 1/4 lower to 1/2 cent higher, rye 1/4 to 1/2 cent higher and soybean 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents lower.

In early dealings wheat was a little lower as local traders were not inclined to bid following the brisk advance so far this week.

Around midway in the morning wheat advanced quite sharply at Kansas City. Prices were quoted as firm for cash wheat. These factors stirred up a buying flurry at Chicago with the May contract setting the pace. Final prices were off about a cent from the day's highs.

Some of the early hesitancy in wheat thundershowers in extreme southwest Kansas and southwest and western Oklahoma. There was no export business confirmed in wheat, but Turkey was expected to be in the market tomorrow for 3,730,000 bushels.

AF Pilot Critically Hurt, Burned In Crash Of Jet Trainer Plane

KANSAS CITY, May 5.—An Air Force pilot was critically injured and burned today when his T33 jet trainer crashed in a field north of the Grandview Air Force Base.

Officials at the base said the craft, a transient, had just taken off from the field a few seconds before the crash.

The name of the pilot was withheld pending notification of relatives.

Air Force crews pulled the pilot from the wreckage and extinguished a small fire that followed. He was rushed to the station hospital where it was reported he had suffered a severe head injury, leg fractures and burns.

Marks End Of Western Occupation

Jubilation Clouded By 'Slavery' Of East Germans

BONN, Germany, May 5.—The West German Republic won sovereignty today and immediately pledged it will "never rest" until it gains freedom for the 18 million Germans in the Soviet Zone.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government stressed that the jubilation of its 50 million citizens at the ending of the 10-year Western occupation is clouded by what he called the slavery of East Germany.

Big 3 Renunciation

American, British, and French renunciation of supreme authority over the Bonn Republic at noon was the crowning achievement of the 79-year-old Chancellor's career.

But opposition Socialist resentment was so bitter over Adenauer having tied up West Germany in the NATO alliance that he did not personally announce the grant of sovereignty in the Parliament.

Warned that the Parliament deputies would walk out if he appeared, Adenauer forwarded a brief statement that Bundestag President Eugen Gerstenmaier read this afternoon.

Only a dozen of the 151 Socialist deputies were in the chamber. They sat grimly with folded arms while government supporters applauded Gerstenmaier.

Socialist Opposition

Socialist Erich Ollenauer, who claims that rearmament will destroy chances of negotiating with Moscow for Germany's reunification, declared:

"The end of the occupation is no cause for rejoicing. We shall only be sovereign when Germany is again united in freedom. This is the most urgent task of the entire German people."

Adenauer's government proclaimed:

"There is for use in the world only one place: on the side of the free peoples."

"Our air is: In a free and united Germany."

To Germans in the Communist-ruled East, it declared: "You belong to us. We belong to you. The joy of our restored freedom is clouded so long as this freedom remains denied to you."

"You can always rely on us, in common with the free world, never to rest until human rights have been restored to you and you live peacefully reunited with us in one state."

Beverly DeWitt Is Recent Bride Of S. L. Magby

Miss Beverly Ann DeWitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. F. DeWitt, Warrensburg, formerly of Knob Noster, became the bride of Mr. Simon L. Magby, Kansas City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Magby, Hartman, Ark., at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 24, at the First Baptist Church in Warrensburg. The Rev. Ernest Waite performed the service before a chancel setting of gladioli and tulips.

Mrs. C. E. Muchmore, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Robert Meade, as she sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Through the Years".

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white taffeta with net overskirt. The fitted bodice was covered with an Alencon lace jacket. The long sleeves came to points at the wrists. Her veil of fingertip length was secured to a halo-type tiara. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses. Her only ornament was a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the groom.

Her only attendant, Miss Evelina Blakesley, Pleasanton, Ia., wore a ballerina length gown of aqua taffeta with lace overskirt. Her accessories were white and she had a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Larry DeWitt, Warrensburg, served as best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a light blue linen dress contrasted with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. The four-tiered wedding cake centered the lace covered table. Sweet peas, tulips and candles completed the decorations.

Miss Mary Newman, Mrs. Harold Granger and Miss Joan Murphy served at the reception and Miss Jane Okada was in charge of the guest book.

When the newlyweds left on a trip to Arkansas, the bride was wearing a light blue linen dress with white accessories.

Mrs. Magby graduated from Warrensburg High School in 1953 and is a student nurse at Independence Sanitarium and Hospital.

The bridegroom is employed at Armo Steele Corp. in Kansas City. They will reside in Independence.

The couple was honored at a rehearsal dinner Saturday evening at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Bethel, Warrensburg.

Voice Pupils Will Present 2 Recitals

In observance of National Music week, the voice pupils of Mrs. A. R. Beach will give two recitals at the First Baptist Church. The first recital will be given Monday evening, May 2, the second one will be given on Tuesday night, May 3. Both recitals will begin at 8 o'clock.

The program for Monday night will be: "Sea Gypsy," Head, and "Clarinda," Morgan, by Bill Couhig; "Silent Strings," Bantock and "Bird of Love Divine," Wood, by Elinor Van Dyke; "Caro Mio Ben," Giordani and "Howdy Do, Miss Springtime," Guen, by Janice Ringen; "Morning," Speaks, and "I Would Weave a Song For You," O'Hara, by Larry Owen; "Petal Drift," Fox and "Lass With the Delicate Air," Arne, by Judy Ragland.

"Concertina," a flute solo, by Chaminade, played by Willis Ann Rosenthal; "Little Damsel," No vello and "Corals," Trehanne, by Barbara Swope; "Carrissima," by Penn and "The Swallows," Cover, by Cay Carrell; "Hayfields and Butterflies," Del Riego and "Were You There?" Burleigh, by Berlene Curtis.

"The Ringers," Lohr and "Rolling Down to Rio," German, by Jim Croy; "I Heard a Black Bird in a Tree," Arlen and "Visi D'arte," Puccini, and "Una Voce Poca Fa," Rossini, by Janice Nelson; "Mocking Bird at Night," Alec Templeton, "A Little French Clock," Kountz, and "Lovely Flowers," Gounod, by Esther Meisenheimer.

The Music Club trio will sing, "Rose Marie," Friml and "Peace I Leave With Thee," Roberts Mesdames James Jolly, Richard Sklar and William Faulkner.

The accompanists will be: Willis Ann Rosenthal, Dick Shoemaker, Judy Case, Mrs. M. E. Austin and Mrs. A. R. Beach.

Mrs. Holst Reports On April Convention

Mrs. C. F. Scotten, 1618 West 18th, was hostess to Garden Club No. 4 at her home Friday afternoon. Mrs. R. R. Ramlow and Mrs. Robert Mullens were assisting hostesses.

A dessert luncheon was served to 24 members. Mrs. Henry Holst, president, reported on the convention held in Columbia April 13-15.

Mrs. J. L. Hiltgenberg gave a talk on birds, the topic for the month.

This meeting was held in advance of the regular meeting date which is May 13.

Josephine Marie White Exchanges Vows With John J. Seifner, Jr.

On Saturday morning April 23 at 9 o'clock Miss Josephine Marie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. White, Route 2, and Mr. John Joseph Seifner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Seifner, Sr., Sedalia, exchanged wedding vows at St. Patrick's Catholic Church. The altar was decorated with vases of cut flowers in pastel shades. The double ring ceremony followed by a nuptial mass was performed by the Rev. J. T. Nolan.

Preceding the ceremony Mr. Bill Couhig sang "Mother At Your Feet is Kneeling," "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother," accompanied by Mrs. Earl Paxton. At the offertory he sang "Ave Maria." The nuptial high mass was sung by the church choir.

The bride given in marriage by her father was attired in a white bridal gown with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace over satin with a small Peter Pan collar. The lace sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The softly gathered skirt of satin was designed with inserts of Chantilly lace on either side of the front and lengthened into an aisle wide train. Her headpiece was a cuffed halo of matching lace with a veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley. She wore an heirloom pin on the collar and the single strand of pearls were a gift of the bridegroom.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honor Miss J. White

Mrs. John Joseph Seifner, Jr., formerly Miss Josephine White, was honored with four pre-nuptial showers.

Mrs. Elroy Borchers and Mrs. A. L. Chancellor entertained with a shower for her April 11 at the home of their mother, Mrs. James Askren, 1219 East Sixth. The home was decorated with pink and white streamers which were attached to the dining table on which the gifts were placed. A bouquet of cut flowers graced the buffet.

Refreshments were served to Miss White, Mrs. William White, Mrs. John Seifner, Sr., Mrs. Ruben Twenter, Mrs. Verrel Martin, Miss Martha Martin, Mrs. Francis Seifner, Miss Patricia Seifner, Mrs. John White, Miss Loretta Harper, Miss Faye Westhusing, Miss Emily Dick, Miss Lorraine Kline, Miss Bernadette Fowler, Miss Jeannie Weinholt, Miss Gloria Robb, Mrs. J. J. Schubert, Mrs. Mord Robb, Mrs. Larry Riley, and Mrs. James Askren, Sr.

Mrs. Verrel Martin and Mrs. Ruben Twenter entertained a few close friends of the honored guest with a personal shower.

The evening was spent playing cards and taking pictures.

Refreshments were served. A miscellaneous shower was given April 18 at the home of Mrs. Jake Krause, 1403 East Tenth, by Mrs. Krause, Mrs. Mike Hula, Mrs. Albert Todd, Mrs. Paul Weinholt and Mrs. Leo Herfurth.

The evening was spent playing games after which refreshments were served.

Those present were: Miss White, Mrs. William White, Mrs. John Seifner, Sr., Mrs. Verrel Martin, Mrs. Ruben Twenter, Mrs. John White, Mrs. C. Pierson, Mrs. Fred Kuhlman, Mrs. Ray Anton, Mrs. Leo Herfurth, Mrs. Leo Coffey, Mrs. Hein, Mrs. Richard Moon, Mrs. Walter McClure, Mrs. Paul Burke, Mrs. M. Robb, Mrs. Paulette Fowler, Mrs. V. Slatinsky, Mrs. Clarence Moon, Miss Eulalia Anton, Mrs. Charles Bahner and Mrs. Margaret Kipping.

Mrs. Francis Seifner and Miss Patricia Seifner entertained with a shower April 17.

The home was decorated with cut flowers.

Games were played and after the honoree opened her gifts refreshments were served.

Guests were: Miss White, Mrs. William White, Mrs. John Seifner, Sr., Mrs. Ruben Twenter, Miss Pat Seifner, Mrs. Verrel Martin, Mrs. Harry Westmeier, Mrs. M. Robb, Mrs. Gladys Scott, Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mrs. John White, Mrs. Richard Martinez, Mrs. D. Hopkins, Mrs. F. J. Seifner, Miss Gloria Robb, Mrs. Fleming and Miss Jane Westmeier.

St. Patrick's Church Is Scene Of Askren-Chancellor Marriage

St. Patrick's Church was the scene of the impressive formal wedding of Miss Mary Jeanette Askren and Mr. Arthur I. Chancellor of Kansas City, Saturday, April 16. At nine o'clock in the morning the Rev. J. T. Nolan performed the double ring ceremony before a setting of Easter lilies and bouquets of snapdragons, tulips and carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Askren, 1219 East Sixth, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chancellor, 1223 East Sixth.

Miss Josephine White, now Mrs. John J. Seifner, Sr., presided at the organ. Selections included "O Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother." She accompanied Mr. Bill Couhig as he sang "Panis Angelicus" and "Mother Beloved."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white satin. The fitted bodice of brocade satin was designed with a standup collar and buttoned down the front with Roman pearl buttons. The long sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. The very full skirt of satin

Miss Vogelsmeir Becomes Bride Of L. Bredehoeft

Before an altar set with bouquets of white carnations, lilies and snapdragons and baskets of white lilies and tulips amid lighted tapers in candelabra Miss Phyllis Ann Vogelsmeir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Vogelsmeir, exchanged vows with Mr. Lawrence Bredehoeft, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bredehoeft, all of Sweet Springs at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sweet Springs Saturday evening, April 23. The double ring ceremony was solemnized at 6 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. R. Delventhal.

Mrs. Paul Wylie, organist, played a program of appropriate music. Mr. Bob Mickey Holden, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Homer Bredehoeft and Mrs. Wallace Bredehoeft lighted the candles. They were waitz length gowns of pale blue lace and taffeta. Matching bolero jackets were worn over the lace bodices. Their flowers were white carnations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin, designed with a snug fitting bodice of lace and satin and fastened down the back with lace covered buttons. The high neckline was accented with an applique of lace on tulle and trimmed with seed pearls. Deep points of lace were appliqued on the bouffant skirt of tulle length. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell from a coronet of pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayer book adorned with stephanotis and satin shower streamers.

Miss Janet Koethe, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Dorothy Bredehoeft and Miss Mary Lou Wellner were bridesmaids. Miss Joan Vogelsmeir, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were identical to those worn by the candlelighters and they carried white carnations.

Mr. Erie Bredehoeft, Seward, Neb., served his cousin as best man. Groomsman were Mr. Homer Bredehoeft and Mr. J. I. Vogelsmeir, brothers of the groom and bride respectively. Ushers were Mr. Wallace Bredehoeft and Mr. Don Vogelsmeir.

Immediately after the ceremony a dinner was served in the social room of the church followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. James Meyer and Miss Ernadine Deke served at the reception. Miss Sarah Nightwine was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left on a trip through the south. For traveling, the new Mrs. Bredehoeft wore a powder blue suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

The bride and groom are both employed at the International Shoe Co. and will reside in Sweet Springs.

DAR's Enjoy Musical Program At Cloney Home

Osage Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its April meeting at Oakdale, the country home of Mrs. T. W. Cloney, Saturday afternoon, April 23. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. J. E. Mitchell, Mrs. A. L. Walter, Miss Kathryn Courtney, Mrs. Frank Leach, Mrs. Harry Brounger, Miss Nell Longan, Mrs. Ira Leiter, Miss Nettie Lamm and Miss Frances Trader.

Mrs. T. W. Croxton, regent, presided at the meeting.

Mrs. E. F. Yancey, at the piano, led the members in singing the National Anthem. The pledge of allegiance was given and the American Creed repeated by Mrs. E. H. Lashley.

Mrs. W. P. Tucker, chaplain of Osage Chapter, gave a prayer found in the book "A Man Called Peter."

Mrs. W. L. Layne made a short talk on citizenship and what it means. Miss Lillian Thomson told of work being done in the Osage Chapter at the Sedalia Public Library. A report was made by Mrs. R. B. Rupard which told of the clothing being collected to send to the school of the Ozarks.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Margaret Nevin, guest of Mrs. Cloney and Mrs. Schoke of Clinton, guest of Mrs. A. J. Campbell.

Mrs. W. P. Tucker introduced Charles Hayworth, a pupil in the seventh grade at Oak Grove School, of which Mrs. Tucker is the teacher. He read his paper, "What Does the Constitution Mean to Me?" which had tied for first place in the national contest. He was presented with a check for $5 for his club as a reward for the honor by Mrs. C. F. Scotten, state chairman of Junior Citizenship Clubs.

The program chairman, Mrs. L. H. Hodges, introduced Mrs. E. F. Yancey and Miss Rebekah Shaffer, who gave an interesting program on "Patriotic Music." It was given as a musical quiz, with Mrs. Yancey playing a song, then asking for identification. Miss Shaffer then read an explanation on how the song happened to be written. Songs they used were: "Yankee Doodle," "Chester," "Hail Columbia," "The Star Spangled Banner," "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," "Maryland," "Dixie," "John Brown's Body," "Battle Cry of Freedom," "Just Before the Battle, Mother," "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching," "Tenting Tonight," "The Girl I Left Behind Me," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," "Soldiers Farewell," "We're Coming, Father Abraham," "Song of a Thousand Years," "Marine Song," "America, the Beautiful," and "The Long, Long Trail."

Mrs. Hodges announced that the May meeting would be at the home of Mrs. E. H. Lashley at which time Mrs. H. P. Vaughan would have the program, "Our Magazine in Review," and Mrs. Ira Leiter would tell of the national convention in Washington, D. C. The meeting was adjourned and members and guests were served refreshments in the dining room, where Mrs. Croxton and Mrs. Yancey presided at the tea table.

Chapters Observe Beta Sigma Phi Founder's Day

Founders Day was observed by all four chapters of Beta Sigma Phi and their guest chapter from Warrensburg, at the Old Missouri Homestead Thursday evening.

The program opened with the national anthem and welcome to the pledges. Acknowledgement was given to the directors and social sponsors of the various chapters by Miss Laura McCurdy. Mrs. Sue Wilson reviewed the activities of the past year. Toasts were given by Miss Anne Pack and Mrs. Margaret Parker.

The new city councils were installed following the program. They are: Miss JoAnn Moore, president; Mrs. Margaret Crippen, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Jo Means, recording secretary; Mrs. Helen Atkinson, treasurer; and Miss Mimi Hale, corresponding secretary.

Three Escape Car Accident On Hiway 65

Suffer Only Minor Injuries After Car Overturns On Road

Three occupants of a 1953 Ford Victoria escaped with minor injuries about midnight Friday when the car they were riding in overturned on U.S. Highway 65, about eight miles north of Sedalia. The car was demolished.

Larry Dimond, 19, Minneapolis, Minn., driver of the car, told Sgt. E. W. Van Winkle of the Missouri State Highway Patrol he was driving about 65 miles per hour when the accident occurred. Dimond suffered a burn bruise on the tip of the left shoulder.

Robert B. "Bob" Dawes, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dawes, Knob Noster, who was riding on the right side of the front seat, injured his left arm, hand and shoulder injured with abrasions and burns. He also had an abrasion on the left forehead.

Robert Harold "Bob" Dickson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dickson, California, Mo., the latter owner of the car, escaped injury. He was riding in the middle on the front seat.

The three told Sgt. Van Winkle and a newspaper reporter they had driven from Fayette, where they are students in Central College, to Booneville to attend a picture show. Becoming dissatisfied with the picture, they decided to drive on to Sedalia, coming by the way of Highway 5 and Highway 50. After a brief stay in Sedalia, they started back to Fayette, going north on Highway 65.

The car started into a left turn and went off the pavement on the shoulder on the right side, traveled 75 yards down the shoulder before Dimond began pulling back to the pavement, according to Sgt. Van Winkle. The car, he reported, after getting on the concrete turned over and went 46 yards before landing on its top, and from that point to where it stopped it traveled 60 yards upside down.

Dawes, in describing the accident, said, "I don't know how many times it turned over. Once I think. But when it landed on the top and started skidding down the concrete, the sparks and fire flew as the metal top went scraping along."

"I thought that 'this is it' when the sparks began flying. We got out of it as quickly as possible because we were sure it would catch fire," he concluded.

A car driven by a senior at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, whose name was not obtained, arrived on the scene seconds after the accident. He picked up Dawes and rushed him to the hospital. Dawes appeared to be more seriously injured at the time than he actually was.

The right sleeve of his jacket was ripped and torn as his arm projected from the car as the car went skidding down the highway on its top.

"A miracle saved those three boys," Sgt. Van Winkle explained after investigating the accident. He took the other boys to the hospital to join Dawes.

Dr. Pete Siegel, who happened to be at the hospital, treated Dawes and Dimond.

The car was towed to the Chamberlin Service Station on West Highway 50.

Dessert Luncheon Is Served Garden Club

A dessert luncheon was served to 22 members and three guests of the Ottaville Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Lewis Smith. Mrs. Forrest Lewis and Mrs. Otto Brunkhorst were co-hostesses.

Mrs. Leo J. Smith conducted the business session and roll was answered by giving the name of a bird in your garden and tell whether to invite it or discourage it. The members decided to postpone the May flower show.

Reports of the flower show held in Columbia were given by those who attended. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. D. B. Mayfield, Mrs. Jesse Parsons, Mrs. W. L. Layne, Mrs. Willie Alfrey, Mrs. R. J. Murray, Mrs. William C. Dunham and Mrs. John Dunham.

The study on pruning and spraying roses was given by Mrs. R. J. Murray.

Awards were given as follows: parrot tulip, Mrs. Jesse Strater; blue, Mrs. Brumback; red, and Mrs. Straten; yellow, double tulip, Mrs. Brumback; blue, and Mrs. Otto Brunkhorst; red, single tulip, Mrs. Brumback; blue, Mrs. T. E. Wear; red, Mrs. Lewis Leaton; yellow, narcissus, Mrs. William Dunham; blue, Mrs. Leaton; red, and Mrs. Frank Yeager; yellow; centerpiece for spring Mrs. Smith; blue, Mrs. Brumback; and Mrs. Leaton; red and Mrs. J. B. Marcum; yellow.

Guests were Mrs. Roger Kirchner, Mrs. C. D. Waters and Mrs. David Wittman.

The next meeting will be May 13 with Mrs. Lewis Berkenbile.

Mrs. Lugen Entertains With Dessert Luncheon

Value of Milk Is Stressed—Home Demonstration Week Observed by Extension Clubs

"You Never Outgrow Your Need For Milk" is the slogan being used this year by the Home Economics Extension Clubs in Missouri during National Home Demonstration Week, which begins today and extends through Saturday.

This slogan supplements the Missouri theme, "Food To Keep Us Strong and Able," and national theme, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

The 38 extension clubs in Pettis County, representing 800 members, are observing National Home Demonstration Week by stressing the use of Food Group 2 of the chart, "A Missouri Plan For Good Eating." Milk and cheese make up this group. Each club will use the materials presented at the recent Council meeting. These materials are: Milk and cheese menus and recipes to be used by the members during National Home Demonstration Week, a true-false quiz, "What Do You Know About Milk?" being used as a game at each club meeting in May, and survey is being made to see how members and their families are using milk.

An exhibit representing all of the clubs in the county was prepared by the Ringen Neighbors club and may be seen at the Missouri Public Service building, 400 South Ohio.

There are 2600 Home Economics Extension Clubs in Missouri with nearly 50,000 women taking part in the cooperative educational program.

Calcium is the nutrient least likely to be present in generous amounts in many foods. American diets are more often low in calcium than in any other food nutrient, says Miss Flora Carl, Missouri University extension nutritionist. Children who lack enough calcium-rich foods, or who are unable to use it, will have smaller bones which may be malformed. Older persons who are calcium poor often have bones that break easily and mend slowly.

How to feed the family well will come in for attention right down the line from the planned food supply to its ultimate use in family meals with special emphasis on the nutritional value of milk and cheese.

While emphasizing milk and cheese and their importance in family meals, no other foods will not be overlooked for no single food group has all things needed for a good diet.

The Smith-Cotton students made the trip by car. Accompanying them were: Mrs. Virgil Ragar, Mrs. Milton Lazenby, Mrs. Ed Brummet and Mrs. Carl Schrader.

The Willing Toilers Class of the Epworth Methodist Church had a dinner meeting Monday April 25, at 6:30 p.m., which was around the theme of Mother's Day.

Guests were Mrs. Clara Wheeler, guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Orpha Wheeler; Mrs. Marguerite Knox, guest of her mother, Mrs. Rick Fullerton; Mrs. Rudy Saunders, guest of her mother, Mrs. Will Haeslip; and Mrs. Anna Clark who made the favors for the dinner which were in keeping with Mother's Day.

After the dinner the following program was presented: Piano selections, by Kay Jacoby; songs by Dickie Jacoby; brass quartette from Mark Twain School, Bill Woolery, Kip Taylor, John Hausam and Mark Shelby; Mark Shelby and Bill Woolery also played a duet after which Mark Shelby sang, "This Old House." Mother's Day poems were read by Mrs. Shelby, Mrs. Knox and Mrs. W. G. Ellison.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. W. H. Harrington.

The next meeting will be held May 23, which is the third Monday of the month instead of the usual fourth Monday because of Memorial Day.

Miss Annette Moser, sophomore at the College of Saint Teresa, Winona, Minn., appeared in a joint choral concert presented April 24 by the Teresian Choral Club and the Saint Mary's College Concert.

Miss Moser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moser, 919 West Fourth, and a graduate of Sacred Heart High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Twenter, 520 West Sixth, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Shirley, to Mr. Robert Dillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Dillard, 922 West Sixth. A June wedding is planned. (Photo by Lehmer)

John "Bud" Thomas

John Thomas Will Succeed Miss Garman

Whittier Principal Retires In Favor Of Class Teaching

John "Bud" Thomas, 1000 Murray, has been appointed the new principal of Whittier School by Heber U. Hunt, superintendent of schools, to succeed Miss Catherine Garman who has chosen to return to teaching duties.

Miss Garman requested the transfer in a letter to Dr. Hunt April 20 stating she preferred to be free of administrative duties and that she wished to return to closer contacts with the children in the classroom, which she stated she had always enjoyed.

The board of education made the change at a special meeting Friday and reluctantly accepted Miss Garman's resignation in accordance with her request. She will be transferred to an elementary teaching position in September.

Miss Garman has been a teacher and principal of Jefferson School before being transferred to Whittier.

The board unanimously elected Thomas as principal effective next school year to succeed Miss Garman. Thomas has been an elementary teacher at Horace Mann during the current year.

He was graduated from Smith-Cotton in 1947 with letters in basketball and track. He played American Legion baseball all four years and was outstanding enough to make the West's All-American team for an East-West baseball game in the Polo Grounds, which included such teammates as Curt Simmons of the Phillies and Jack Dittmer of the Braves.

The opposing coaches were Ty Cobb and Babe Ruth. Thomas played 8 1/2 innings at shortstop.

After graduation, Thomas joined the farm system of the old St. Louis Browns, playing with several different teams until he was brought up to St. Louis at the end of the 1951 season. He then played a winter of ball in Puerto Rico.

Thomas left professional baseball in 1953 to teach at LaMonte and Ottaville part time while studying at Warrensburg. He coached basketball and other sports. His first full-time teaching position was at Horace Mann School in September, 1954.

'Women Only' Next Medical Forum Topic

The subject to be discussed at the Pettis County Medical Forum Tuesday, May 10, in the Little Theater at Smith-Cotton High School will be "For Women Only." Dr. Clarence D. Davis, professor and chairman of the department of obstetrics and gynecology at the University of Missouri School of Medicine in Columbia, will be the featured speaker.

Dr. Davis was born in Pittsford, N. Y., in 1912. He graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1935 and received his M.D. degree from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in 1939. Following internship in Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, Pa., and Genesee Hospital, Rochester, N. Y., he was in the department of obstetrics and gynecology at the University of Minnesota before going to Duke University to work in endocrinology. He remained at Duke on the teaching staff until 1946 when he left to become an associate in the Mason Clinic in Seattle, Wash. While in this city he was on the teaching staff at the University of Washington school of medicine. In 1950 Dr. Davis returned to Duke, where he was appointed assistant professor of obstetrics and gynecology, and remained there until 1954 when he moved to Columbia, Missouri to assume his present position.

In discussing the subject "For Women Only" Dr. Davis will present the problems pertaining to three age groups of women, the adolescent girl, the child bearing age, and after menopause. Since many men are directly concerned with these problems in any of the three age groups they are also invited to attend.

The Pettis County Medical Forums are sponsored by The Sedalia Democrat-Capital and are presented by the Pettis County Medical Society in the public interest. This Forum will be the final one of the spring series. There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Clean-Up Week Ends With Sharper Town

Clean-Up Week ended Saturday with a much nicer looking town the result of a week of clean-up activity.

People of the town certainly must have really worked getting closets, attics, houses, garages, and yards cleaned up because the city trucks and commercial trucks hauled away 357 loads during the four days of hauling.

There was a lot of painting done, too, and planting. Now everybody has a good start and if they didn't get finished there will be plenty of time to do the other things that need doing and to continue making their homes attractive through the remainder of the year.

The activities of the week closed with a square dance at the Mike O'Connor lot, Fourth and Kentucky, with a large crowd of square dancers and spectators.

Drivers Warned To Keep License From Expiring

Motorists are warned to check their driver's license to ascertain if it is nearing expiration date. Many licenses are becoming due this year as birthdays arrive and must be renewed.

W. C. Askew, deputy motor vehicle commissioner for this area, announced the danger of some motorists who failed to renew their license in time may have to take a driver's test, or be subject to a $1 penalty.

Those whose licenses are becoming due have 60 days from their birth date to make application for renewal of their license and not have to take a test. Those who fail to apply within 60 days are subject to appear before the State Highway Patrol driver license supervisor and take the tests. Those whose license are due within the 60-day period are subject to pay an additional penalty of $1 for their license.

The motor vehicle division of the Department of State has issued these warnings through their deputy motor vehicle commissioners.

Jack Faber Attends Chamber of Commerce Meeting in Capital

Jack Faber, executive manager of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, left Saturday by train for St. Louis and from there by plane to Washington, D. C., where he will attend the national meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce. He will return to St. Louis Thursday, May 5, where he expects to do some work for the local Chamber of Commerce.

On May 6-8, Faber will attend the state convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in St. Louis. As a member of the executive committee he will participate in the executive board meeting which will be held there on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Delton Armstrong and Mrs. Gold Hegenritz gave a chicken dinner recently for the State Fair staff. Thirty-eight staff members attended the dinner at Flat Creek Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Eggert, who have been residing in Detroit, Mich., since about 1923, are returning to Sedalia to live and have purchased a new home on East Broadway in the Arlington district.

Before going to Detroit Mr. Eggert was employed at the Missouri Pacific Shops and the Eggerts lived at 1213 East Seventh. Mrs. Eggert is a sister of Mrs. Guy Johnson, 1221 East Seventh, and Mr. Eggert is a brother of Mrs. Anna Steele and Mrs. Will Haeslip. They are members of the Epworth Methodist Church.

Miss Lena Balke, Cole Camp, veteran Benton County teacher, has retired from teaching. Her last service was at Lake Creek School.

Miss Balke has been teaching for 44 years in various schools in that area. She has been active in civic affairs including school parades and exhibits at the Cole Camp fairs where her schools have won many prizes.

She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anton Balke and was born and reared in the Balke Prairie neighborhood southeast of Cole Camp. She now lives with her sister, Mrs. Anna Burke.

For a number of years she has taught Sunday School at the United Lutheran Church and Bible School in the summer.

Rebekah Sewing Club Has Recent Meeting

The Rebekah Sewing Club, Loyal 260, met at the Club Rooms, Second and Lamine, Wednesday, April 27, for its monthly meeting.

A covered dish dinner was served to the members and two guests.

The meeting was presided over by Gib Owen after which the remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gib Owen.

Don't Believe Poverty Basis Of Delinquent

NEW YORK — The parents of what is believed to be the nation's largest all-boy family don't see why poverty should cause juvenile delinquency.

Emory and Thelma Harrison, a farm couple who live near Johnson City, Tenn., have 13 sons ranging in steppladder style down from 21-year-old Guy to Ivan, an infant of 3 weeks.

Money poor all his life, Harrison said his children "never caused us a speck of trouble," and explained why:

"It's the way we raised them. We raised them to obey us, never to bother anybody and never to pick up anything that belonged to anybody else.

"If they need a spanking, they get it. But they don't need it often. Each has his chores—one feeds the hogs, corn one feeds them slops, one does the milking. Some dry the dishes, some cut wood, some carry it in.

"They all help each other. The big boys are just as crazy about the new baby as my wife and me are.

"There never was a child born but what there was a bite made to fill its mouth with—but there have been fathers and mothers too trifling to fill a child's mouth.

"When we had one child we just lived. When we had six children we lived. Now we got 13—and we're still living."

Mrs. Harrison was named "Honorable Mother of the Year" by the Interfaith Movement in recognition of "her exemplary life as wife, mother and neighbor." The Robert Hall clothing firm paid the expenses of the entire family here so they could see her get the award.

During a four-day stay the boys won a $3,200 jackpot in cash and prizes on a CBS network show "On Your Account." But the wonders of Manhattan palled quickly and left the whole family homesick.

"It's corn plantin' time," explained Harrison.

The tall, rawboned farmer, who had to quit school after the fourth grade to go to work, is a man of natural dignity with a rich vein of homespun humor.

Having a large family came naturally to the Harrisons. His wife is one of 16 children. His grandfather, a religious man as he tells it, had 27 children, 3 wives, rode a red mule to church every Sunday until he was 85, and died triumphant at 93, still praising the Lord for a good life.

"And he raised all 27 children on a 70-acre farm," said Harrison.

"I courted for a year before I got married when I was 23," he added. "I'll never forget that day. I didn't have anything at all—only a woman"—Mrs. Harrison glanced up with a shy smile—"and maybe 75 cents in my pocket. I earned only $2 the first week we were married."

After years of struggling labor during which he sometimes had to go out after his day's work and cut wood to trade it for groceries, Harrison was able with the help of a friend to buy a 72-acre hill farm.

The farm has 2 horses, 3 cows, 225 chickens, 6 or 8 hogs, a large vegetable garden. The cash crops are wheat, corn and tobacco.

"We don't spend more than $13 to $14 a week for food," Harrison said. "We raise the rest."

"I don't believe our medical bills have been more than $50 all told since we were married, not counting the cost of getting the boys born.

"If they get a cold I just mix up some hog lard, turpentine and kerosene, rub it on their chests, then turn 'em off barefooted. We don't pay no attention to 'em not wearing shoes."

One Tuesday last October a fire destroyed their home. For the first time in his life Harrison felt completely down at heart. But the next Sunday the congregations of 12 nearby churches pitched in with money, materials and labor and built the family a larger, better home.

"I think I know now what faith and friendship come to," said Harrison. "I've known a right snort of trouble, but I've had a happy life.

"But the children—they're the biggest enjoyment we've got in this world. It would be lonesome without anyone of our children. We'd miss him."

Mrs. Harrison nodded quietly. Harrison said he hoped to use the cash money the family won on television to give his boys as much schooling as possible.

"If I give them an education I know it's the one thing nobody'll be able to take away from them later on," he said. "It'll help 'em go farther than their daddy."

Most kids are well informed about everything they don't have to study.

OBITUARIES

B. F. Boland
B. F. Boland, 53, died Monday night, May 2, at his home in Pasadena, Calif., where he had resided the past 15 years. Death was due to a heart attack.

Mr. Boland was born at Carthage, Mo., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Boland. He was married to Miss Bonnie McPherson, daughter of the late Elmer McPherson and Mrs. Jennie McPherson of Fortuna. The marriage was in 1927 at the McPherson home.

Survivors are his widow and two sons, Ben F., and Grant Boland, Pasadena, and two sisters.

Funeral services were held in Pasadena Thursday with burial there.

Mrs. Jennie McPherson, who spent the past several months at Fortuna with her son, Marvin McPherson, Mrs. McPherson and children, and other relatives, left for California after receiving the message of Mr. Boland's death and she expects to remain in Pasadena, Calif., with her daughter.

Arch Ferrell Acquitted By Alabama Jury

Former Prosecutor Free of Charge On Patterson Murder

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Arch Ferrell, prosecutor at Phenix City in the days of its lush rackets empire, is free of the charge that he murdered vice foe A. L. Patterson last June 18.

The 38-year-old Ferrell sat tense yesterday as a jury returned the verdict of acquittal after deliberating 13 hours and 11 minutes. The decision came after a 17-day trial.

The young attorney, stripped of his office in the cleanup campaign which followed the Patterson lynchings, had nothing to say to newsmen concerning his future plans.

Patterson was shot down outside his law office 17 days after he had been nominated as Alabama attorney general on a pledge to wipe out Phenix City's multi-million-dollar vice empire.

Ferrell was one of three men charged with the slaying. Albert Fuller, former chief deputy sheriff at Phenix City, was convicted and sentenced to life here Jan. 11. Former Atty. Gen. S. Garrett is in a mental hospital in Galveston, Tex., and has not been tried.

The former prosecutor contended that he was talking with Garrett, who was in Birmingham, on the phone at the instant Patterson was slain. Garrett told the same story to Birmingham reporters the night of the killing. He was not here for the Ferrell trial.

Ferrell sat frozen in his chair after the verdict. His attractive, dark-haired wife was tearful with joy.

Counsel for Ferrell had sought to postpone the trial at this time because a jury which acquitted Ferrell of vote fraud charges in March was criticized by two officials for that action.

The vote fraud, in which 600 votes were added here to the total for Patterson's opponent in a vain effort to change the outcome, figured largely in the murder case.

Special prosecutor Cecil Deason told the murder jury Ferrell had tried to buy the attorney general's race with $23,000 from Phenix City gamblers; then tried to steal it by changing votes; and then shot Patterson down to keep the 60-year-old crippled World War I veteran from carrying out his pledge to smash vice.

Explorer Encampment Camporee At Air Base Take Flight on C-47

WARSAW—Rev. Oral Van Horn and Mrs. Edwin Brady accompanied the following explorer scouts to the Sedalia Air Force Base last weekend when the Lake of the Ozarks Council of Boy Scouts of America, held an Explorer Scout Camporee: Bob and Bill Marble, Bob and Jim Drake, Bob Brady, Jim Singleton, Mike Kowitz, John Robert Owen, Glen Lehman, Jr., Lincoln, and their counselor, Mr. Jack Pohl.

The boys went Saturday morning and spent the night in the transient quarters. Meals were served Air Force style in the non-commissioned officers' mess. The high point of the visit was a flight on a C-47 aircraft on Sunday morning. The other time was taken by visiting the air base training center, demonstrations of fire fighting tours of the tactical aircraft and a look at several training films. Worship services were attended on Sunday morning prior to their final meeting and trip home. The trip had been planned for March, but was postponed due to the weather conditions. Mr. O. V. Singleton and Mr. Harve Christy accompanied the boys and Mr. Pohl home on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Joan Vogelmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Vogelmeier, Sweet Springs, underwent a tonsillectomy at the Roberts and Worley Clinic May 2.

Dewey Sims, Sweet Springs, was taken to Fitzgibbon Hospital, Marshall, April 27. His condition is fair.

Mrs. Floyd Fain, Sweet Springs, underwent surgery Saturday morning at Lakeside Hospital and her condition is described as critical.

Accidents

Damages resulted to two automobiles about 8:15 p.m. Thursday when they collided at the intersection of Broadway and Osage. A 1951 Chevrolet sedan owned and driven by Doyle R. Brown, 802 East Ninth, was headed west on Broadway, and a 1948 Hudson sedan owned and driven by John H. Zahring, 1606 South Stewart, was going north on Osage when the mishap occurred.

Damages to Brown's car were to the front end and grill and damage to Zahring's car was to the right side.

In Other Courts

Sheriff Paul Piper, Saline County, has sent burglary warrants to officers at Warsaw for Bill and Ray Nichols, who are held there under bonds of $1,500 each and were bound over to the circuit court yesterday following a preliminary hearing there on burglary charges.

Sheriff Piper has also sent a hold order to the Warsaw officers on those two men.

Wants Water Study

JEFFERSON CITY — A special Senate committee to study state water use policies would be set up under a plan offered in the Missouri Senate today.

It was introduced by Sens. Jack C. Jones (D) of Carrollton and George A. Spencer (D) of Columbia. No immediate action was taken.

House Group OKs Cut In Army's Manpower

WASHINGTON, May 5 — The administration's military budget calling for an 87,000-man cut in the Army during the next 12 months was approved by the House Appropriations Committee today.

The committee voted $31,488,206,000 in new defense funds and said the present structure of the armed forces will be maintained "for an indefinite period." This means there is little likelihood of any big reduction in defense spending in the near future.

Cow Country Terms

DALLAS, Tex. — Know the difference between a cowboy and a cowpuncher? Brand inspector C. F. Barby of Kansas City explained it at a cattlemen's meeting.

In the days when men riding the train with cattle carried a lantern and a prod, they punched the cattle back to their feet with the prod when the stock lay down or fell.

Consequently the men who rode the cattle cars became known as cowpunchers. A cowboy then and now herded cattle on the range.

In most cases the lice which are parasites of mammals are sucking lice and those which are parasites of birds are biting lice.

Mrs. M. E. Green Installs—Sedalia Council of PTAs Holds Annual Luncheon

The annual luncheon of the Sedalia Council of Parent-Teacher Associations was held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Smith-Cotton High School cafeteria, at which time the new officers of the council were installed.

Mrs. M. E. Green, who for many years was active in PTA work and served in many offices, was the installing officer. Officers for the year 1955-56 are: Mrs. Howard Winn, president; Mrs. Bob Kahrs, vice-president; Mrs. S. F. Swearingin, secretary; Mrs. John Owen, treasurer; and Mrs. John Kinney, historian.

Mrs. Green said that ever since there has been civilization people have met to council together. She told of the importance of all PTA work in the nation, the state, the district, the city council and the units. The council, she said, is for inspiration, information and fellowship and it is necessary for it to have cooperation.

Mrs. Winn, who has been council president since December, when Mrs. Lawrence Daily, president, moved to Springfield, and she as vice-president became president, conducted the meeting and gave the invocation.

The devotional on the theme of Mother Love was given by Mrs. George Chamberlain.

Each year an attendance plaque is given to the school having the highest representation at the council meetings during the year. The plaque went back again this year to Washington School, the second year in succession. This is the third time Washington has had the plaque since it was first given in 1949.

The scrapbook winning first place was that of Horace Mann School. The book, which was in gold and white, was an exceptionally beautiful book and was made by Mrs. Carl Barr. The Jefferson School scrapbook received the red ribbon for second place and Washington School the white ribbon for third place.

The outgoing presidents of each Parent-Teacher Association of the schools, Smith-Cotton, Broadway, Horace Mann, Hubbard, Jefferson, Mark Twain, Washington and Whittier introduced the new presidents and in turn the new PTA presidents introduced their officers and chairman for the coming year.

Council officers and chairmen were also introduced by Mrs. Winn.

Mrs. Oliver Thomas and Mrs. Sam Knapp were appointed by Mrs. Winn on the auditing committee.

Mrs. Winn also announced the School of Instructions that will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. John Murrell, school nurse, expressed appreciation to the mothers who helped at the polio vaccination clinic held last week and stated that the next clinic will be held May 12. She urged mothers who could to again help with the clinic to be there.

The musical part of the program was a group of songs by a sextette of girls from Smith-Cotton High School composed of Janet Ragar, Cay Carrel, Sandra Baker, Elmer Van Dyke, Clo Greer and Linda Bradley.

Guests introduced were Dr. Heber Hunt, superintendent of schools, Forrest Drake and Pinkney Miller, Smith-Cotton High School, and principals of the various schools, Miss Bessie Perkins, Washington, Miss Catherine Garman, Whittier, George Thompson, Jefferson, P. A. Sillers, Horace Mann, Jack Delp, Mark Twain, and Paul Killian, acting principal of Broadway.

The group discussed having the Parent-Education groups to meet together once a month so that they might secure good speakers. The decision of what to do was left up to the Parent-Education chairman from each school.

Mrs. L. E. Sheridan, the new president of Smith-Cotton High School PTA presented Mrs. Gib Owen, retiring president, with a bar for her pin.

Mrs. Winn in closing stressed the necessity of cooperation. She told the PTA groups that no matter how good their leaders might be they cannot go forward without cooperation and she asked that she also be given cooperation in the council.

County Council Halts Bond Issue Proposal; Housing Tiff Rages

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis County Council has rejected a proposal to hold a $9,300,000 bond issue election June 16, apparently ending any chance for an early vote on the proposition.

The action came yesterday on a voice vote. The citizens' bond issue screening committee earlier had recommended the election be held in November.

The proposal calls for $8,500,000 for the county's share in acquiring rights-of-way for three expressways and an outer belt and $800,000 for a children's building.

In other action, the council also sought an opinion from Counselor Herbert C. Funke on the powers of the council to appoint and remove members of the county housing authority.

A county grand jury, in a report last Saturday, charged gross negligence by the authority in the administration of its Jefferson Barracks housing project had resulted in the waste of thousands of dollars a year.

Arkansas Woman Dies In Fire at Home; Rescue Attempt Fails

CORNING, Ark. — Mrs. Birde Parrish, 50, was burned to death and a neighbor who attempted to rescue her was severely burned early today in a fire that destroyed her six-room frame house.

The neighbor, Mrs. Willodean Baker, 24, told police she had reached the front door when an explosion knocked her into the front yard and set her clothes afire. She put out the flames by rolling in the grass.

Mrs. Baker was taken to a hospital in Poplar Bluff Mo. 30 miles north of here. Police said Mrs. Parrish was alone at the time of the fire, the cause of which was undetermined. Her husband, Cliff Parrish, is working in East St. Louis, Ill.

Woman Booked After Child Found Beaten

LOS ANGELES — The mother of a 4-year-old boy is accused of child beating—and her son is under treatment for a possible blood clot on the brain black eyes, bruises and burns of the hands, feet and body.

A policeman found little John Haska near his home Tuesday night. Yesterday his mother Mrs. Pearl Chew was booked on suspicion of child beating.

Officers said she told them she knocked the boy down when he laughed at her while she was scolding him. "He's a good boy, but I get mad when he laughs at me," she said.

Investigators said John told them his mother "made me sit on a stove." Mrs. Chew has two other children and is expecting a fourth.

Texas Has Integration

AUSTIN, Tex. — Three Negro children are attending elementary school with white children at Friona, in northwest Texas, in the state's first racial integration in public schools.

The historic move was revealed yesterday. Friona School Supt. Dalton Caffey said about 700 white children enrolled have accepted the Negroes and in fact seem rather proud of them.

It would provide money for higher teacher salaries and for more adequate classroom space in schools expecting a big jump in enrollment in the next few years, sponsors have said.

Leaders on both sides of the House said they like the House committee plan better than the Senate proposal.

But the Legislature wants to quit actual work on bills next week. The sharp difference between the House and Senate could bring on a bitter fight in the next few days.

Bengal Baseball Team Bows To Lebanon In Sub-District

Unions Return To Work; End Sandia Strike

ALBUQUERQUE — Twelve unions went back to work today at Sandia Base, ending for a month at least a strike against the firm operating the atomic center.

About 2,600 workers, split between the AFL Metal Trades Council and AFL Office Employees local 251, returned to man the sprawling installation where atomic weapons are assembled and used for them are developed.

They ended their walkout, which began April 26, last night when they were told of a plea by the President's atomic labor-management relations panel. William F. Leverenz, president of the Metal Trades Council who conferred with the panel in Washington, reported to the strikers that the panel would make recommendations within 30 days after a hearing on strike issues in Albuquerque next week.

Sandia Corp., a subsidiary of Western Electric, runs Sandia. J. B. McCoy, a local labor leader, said, "This doesn't mean we're going to accept anything they are willing to hand out."

Involved are 29 issues. One of the union demands was that the firm be replaced by another to operate Sandia. The unions also object to a company proposal to cut vacations from 24 to 12 days with a raise in pay. The unions also claim the company has not recognized union representatives in collective bargaining, and they seek a 14-cent an hour wage increase across the board. Current wages are from $1.48 to $2.80 an hour.

Former Chamber Head Dies In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY — George Harvey Davis, former president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, died today.

Davis, 79, was president of the Davis-Noland-Merrill Grain Co. and had remained active in the firm until he became ill of a heart ailment two months ago.

A staunch spokesman for free enterprise, Davis carried his views to the nation in 1937-38 when he served two one-year terms as head of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Laud Society Work

JEFFERSON CITY — Today was the 40th anniversary of Floyd C. Shoemaker's service as secretary of the Missouri Historical Society and the Senate lauded his work in a special resolution.

Sen. Leo J. Rozier (R) of Perryville, the sponsor, noted that Shoemaker has built the society into the biggest of its kind in the nation. In doing so he has become widely known as "Mr. Missouri."

Only Charging Battery

DETROIT — Mrs. Espynola Fuller, 23, testified in Traffic Court she was doing 80 miles an hour but only to charge her car battery. The excuse wasn't good enough for Traffic Referee John M. Wise.

She was fined $75 and told not to drive for two months.

State House Faces Problem Of Financing School Program

JEFFERSON CITY — How should Missouri pay for a proposed $67 million school foundation program?

By increasing the state sales tax from two to two and a half percent as the Senate proposed?

Or by slapping an across the board increase of two per cent on income tax pay schedules as a House committee suggested yesterday?

The Missouri House got that problem dumped in its lap today. The Senate set up the foundation program in one proposition to be voted on by the people next Oct. 4. In a separate proposition the Senate suggested the sales tax hike to produce an estimated $24½ million a year and to be voted on the same day next fall.

But the House Constitutional Amendments Committee listened to a suggestion of organized labor and put the income tax hike proposal right in the same bill with the foundation program. That way House leaders said the whole idea stands or falls alone.

And they set the date for the

S-C Tigers Eliminated From Tourney 6-4 In Finals Thursday Following Win Over Buffalo

The Lebanon High School Thursday afternoon eliminated the Smith-Cotton Tigers in the Sub-District Tournament 6-4 in a game played at Lebanon. Lebanon now travels to the District Tournament to be held at Joplin next week.

Opening the game the Tigers drew a walk for Lane, three straight hits followed. Case, Mines and Barbour, resulting in both Lane and Case scoring. Then in the fourth they added another on Abney's home run. The fourth tally for the Sedalians came in the seventh when Newman made first on an error, traveled to second on another error, and when Lane got a safety Newman scored.

The Tigers held a one-run edge after the first inning after passing one run made by Lebanon when scored on in the top of the inning. That one run came on a two base bing by Gaines followed by a hit by Brown on which Gaines scored. Lebanon bounced back in the top of the fourth when a safety by Atkins followed by an error on this was followed by a circuit Newman put him on second base, drive off the bat of Skelton and both scored. This put the opponents ahead until the bottom half when the Tigers scored their one run to tie it up.

In the seventh Lebanon tallied another run when McAllister smashed out a fence rattler for a homer. The Tigers tied that up. But in the top of the eighth the necessary margin came when Brown hit a safety and was followed by Atkins who drove the ball out for a home run to score Brown ahead of him.

Sen. Leo J. Rozier (R) of Perryville, the sponsor, noted that Shoemaker has built the society into the biggest of its kind in the nation. In doing so he has become widely known as "Mr. Missouri."

Only Charging Battery

DETROIT — Mrs. Espynola Fuller, 23, testified in Traffic Court she was doing 80 miles an hour but only to charge her car battery. The excuse wasn't good enough for Traffic Referee John M. Wise.

She was fined $75 and told not to drive for two months.

State House Faces Problem Of Financing School Program

JEFFERSON CITY — How should Missouri pay for a proposed $67 million school foundation program?

By increasing the state sales tax from two to two and a half percent as the Senate proposed?

Or by slapping an across the board increase of two per cent on income tax pay schedules as a House committee suggested yesterday?

The Missouri House got that problem dumped in its lap today. The Senate set up the foundation program in one proposition to be voted on by the people next Oct. 4. In a separate proposition the Senate suggested the sales tax hike to produce an estimated $24½ million a year and to be voted on the same day next fall.

But the House Constitutional Amendments Committee listened to a suggestion of organized labor and put the income tax hike proposal right in the same bill with the foundation program. That way House leaders said the whole idea stands or falls alone.

And they set the date for the

County Council Halts Bond Issue Proposal; Housing Tiff Rages

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis County Council has rejected a proposal to hold a $9,300,000 bond issue election June 16, apparently ending any chance for an early vote on the proposition.

The action came yesterday on a voice vote. The citizens' bond issue screening committee earlier had recommended the election be held in November.

The proposal calls for $8,500,000 for the county's share in acquiring rights-of-way for three expressways and an outer belt and $800,000 for a children's building.

In other action, the council also sought an opinion from Counselor Herbert C. Funke on the powers of the council to appoint and remove members of the county housing authority.

A county grand jury, in a report last Saturday, charged gross negligence by the authority in the administration of its Jefferson Barracks housing project had resulted in the waste of thousands of dollars a year.

Former Chamber Head Dies In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY — George Harvey Davis, former president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, died today.

Davis, 79, was president of the Davis-Noland-Merrill Grain Co. and had remained active in the firm until he became ill of a heart ailment two months ago.

A staunch spokesman for free enterprise, Davis carried his views to the nation in 1937-38 when he served two one-year terms as head of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Laud Society Work

JEFFERSON CITY — Today was the 40th anniversary of Floyd C. Shoemaker's service as secretary of the Missouri Historical Society and the Senate lauded his work in
